

TORCH 1978

DEDICATION

The greatest single factor in the healthy growth of any College is the loyalty of the alumni. The Northeast Mississippi Junior College Alumni Association was reactivated in 1965. The members of the Northeast Junior College Alumni Association are eager to promote the best interest of Northeast at all times by providing information about Northeast Junior College services and supporting the Junior College. For their loyalty and dedication to the College, we honorably dedicate the 1978 edition of THE TORCH to The Northeast Mississippi Junior College Alumni Association.

One of the surest measures of a college is its alumni. Northeast is proud of its alumni who number more than 38,000 throughout the United States. The Northeast Alumni Association sponsors a full schedule of events including Homecoming, one of the most enjoyable programs of the year for alumni, students, and faculty alike. Many programs have been set in motion, including expansion and improvement of records, closer coordination between college alumni.

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College Alumni Association was organized in the fall of 1965. Since the Association is relatively young, it does not have the financial support or the strength of numbers to render its potential effectiveness in service to Northeast. However, we do have a mutual acceptance of the unique partnership that exists between the alumni and the institution.

The College has made every attempt to keep alumni members informed of the total educational program. Each active member receives a copy of the Beacon, the school newspaper. This news medium provided the alumni with information about current events on campus. An alumni newspaper is prepared at various intervals and forwarded to all alumni on the mailing list.

The Alumni Office is located on the Northeast campus with a full-time secretary.

PURPOSE

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College Alumni Association shall serve as a link between the college and its alumni, faculty, and friends. It proposes to make the college aware of the educational needs of the people within the Junior College Service Area and to support by scholarship, gifts, and otherwise the educational and scientific work of the college.

ALUMNI OFFICE

Located on the Northeast campus, the Alumni Association has a full-time secretary. This office coordinates all of the alumni activities including newsletters, mail-outs, and special events.

"ALUMNUS OF THE YEAR" AWARD

The Alumni Association has established an "Alumnus of the Year" Award to honor former students who have exhibited merit and achievement to the College and who have contributed to a better America by building better communities through service.

Guidelines for submitting nominations for the "Alumnus of the Year" are as follows:

- Nominee must have attended The Northeast Mississippi Junior College and must have successfully completed at least one semester as a full-time student five years prior to the current school year.
- Nominee must have exhibited merit and achievement which have brought recognition and honor either to their community or to the College.
- Nominations can be made by any member of the Northeast teaching staff and by any alumni of the College.

Dr. William (Bill) Jackson, a practicing physician of medicine from Corinth, received the first Alumnus of the Year Award in 1977. Receiving the honor with Dr. Jackson is his wife, Linda.

Models of Fall Fashions

Extending beyond its main street frontier, Northeast forms a small community within itself. Although Northeast means different things to different people, certain activities at Northeast are common to everyone during his years here. Students are often seen hurrying to class, practicing their skills, or just pausing during the day. Yet the way such routines are done here made the HAPPENINGS at Northeast.

Small traditions distinguish Northeast as a unique community. Everyone studies — some more than others — and the different study habits are part of the HAPPENINGS on campus. Some find a favorite desk in the library or a convenient table in the Union to follow their academic pursuits during their years at Northeast. When the weather is nice, others usually find the great outdoors a good place for studying. If all else fails, there's still the desk in the dorm.

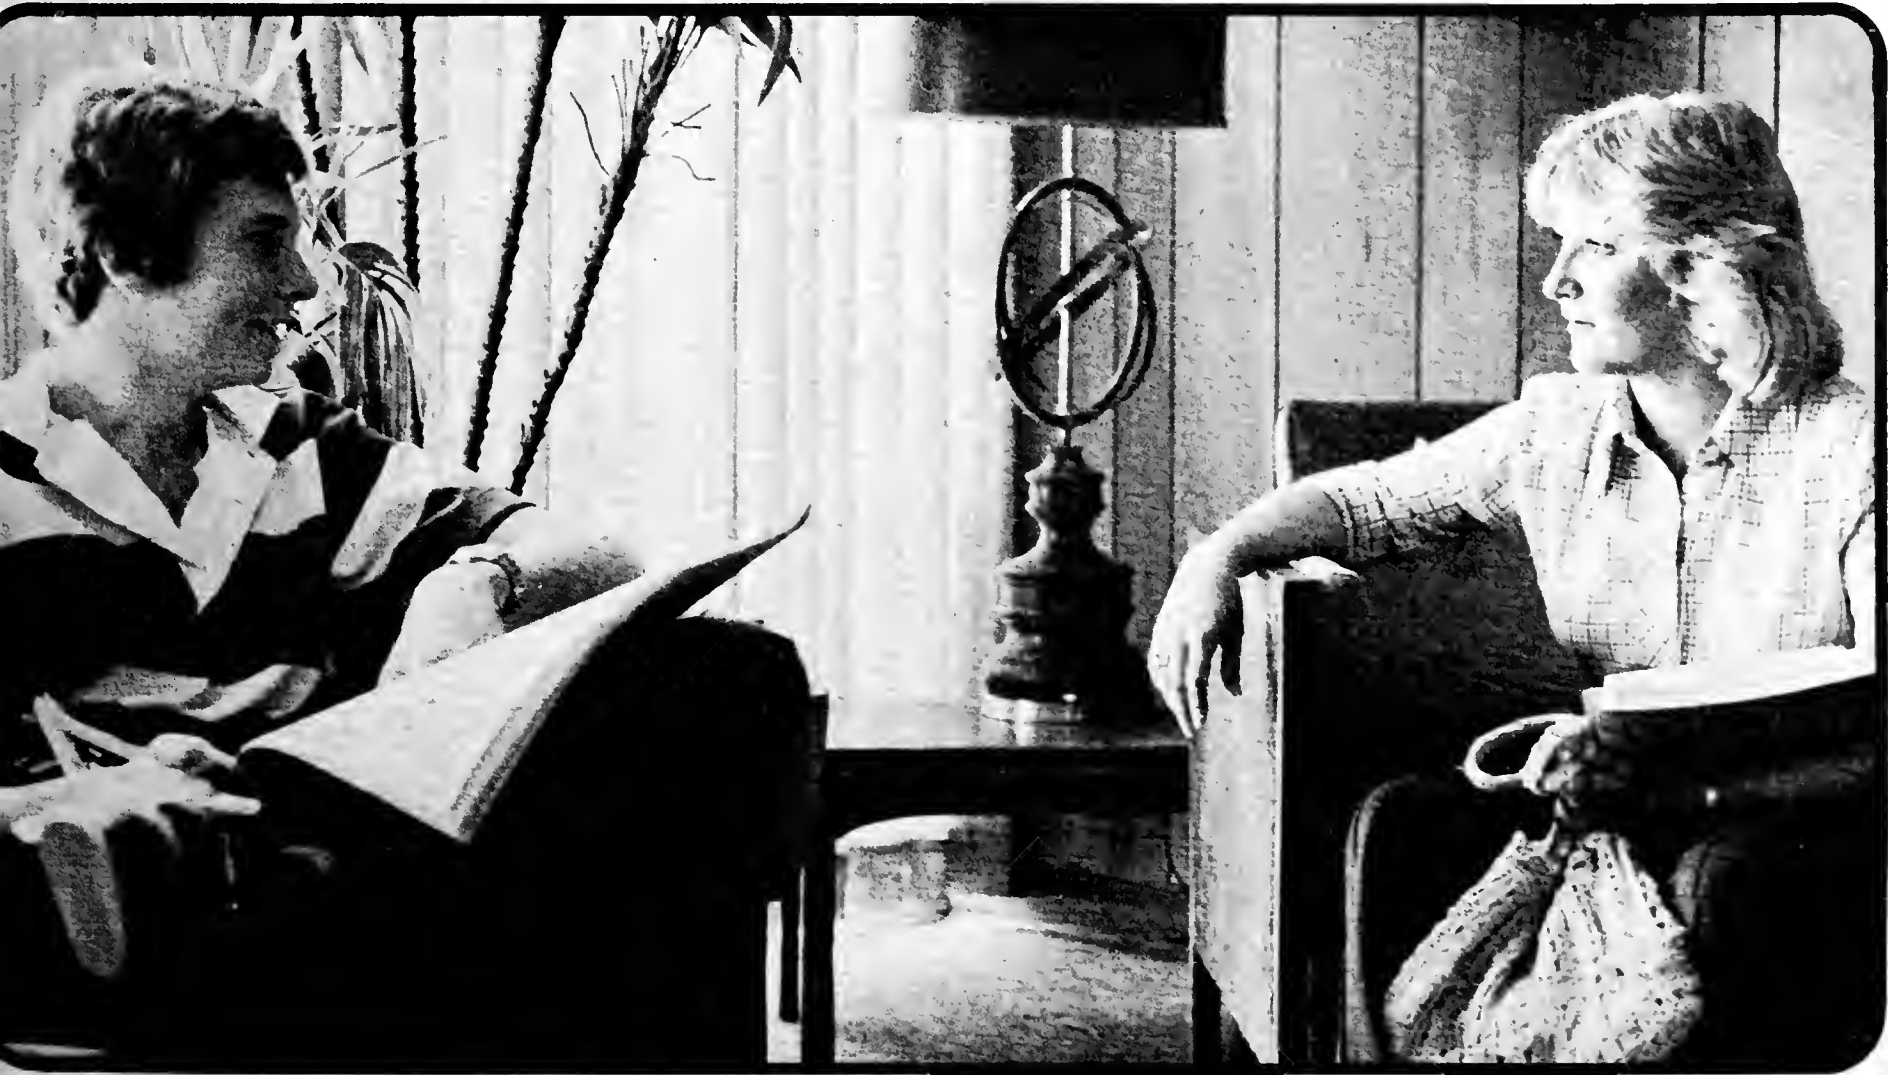

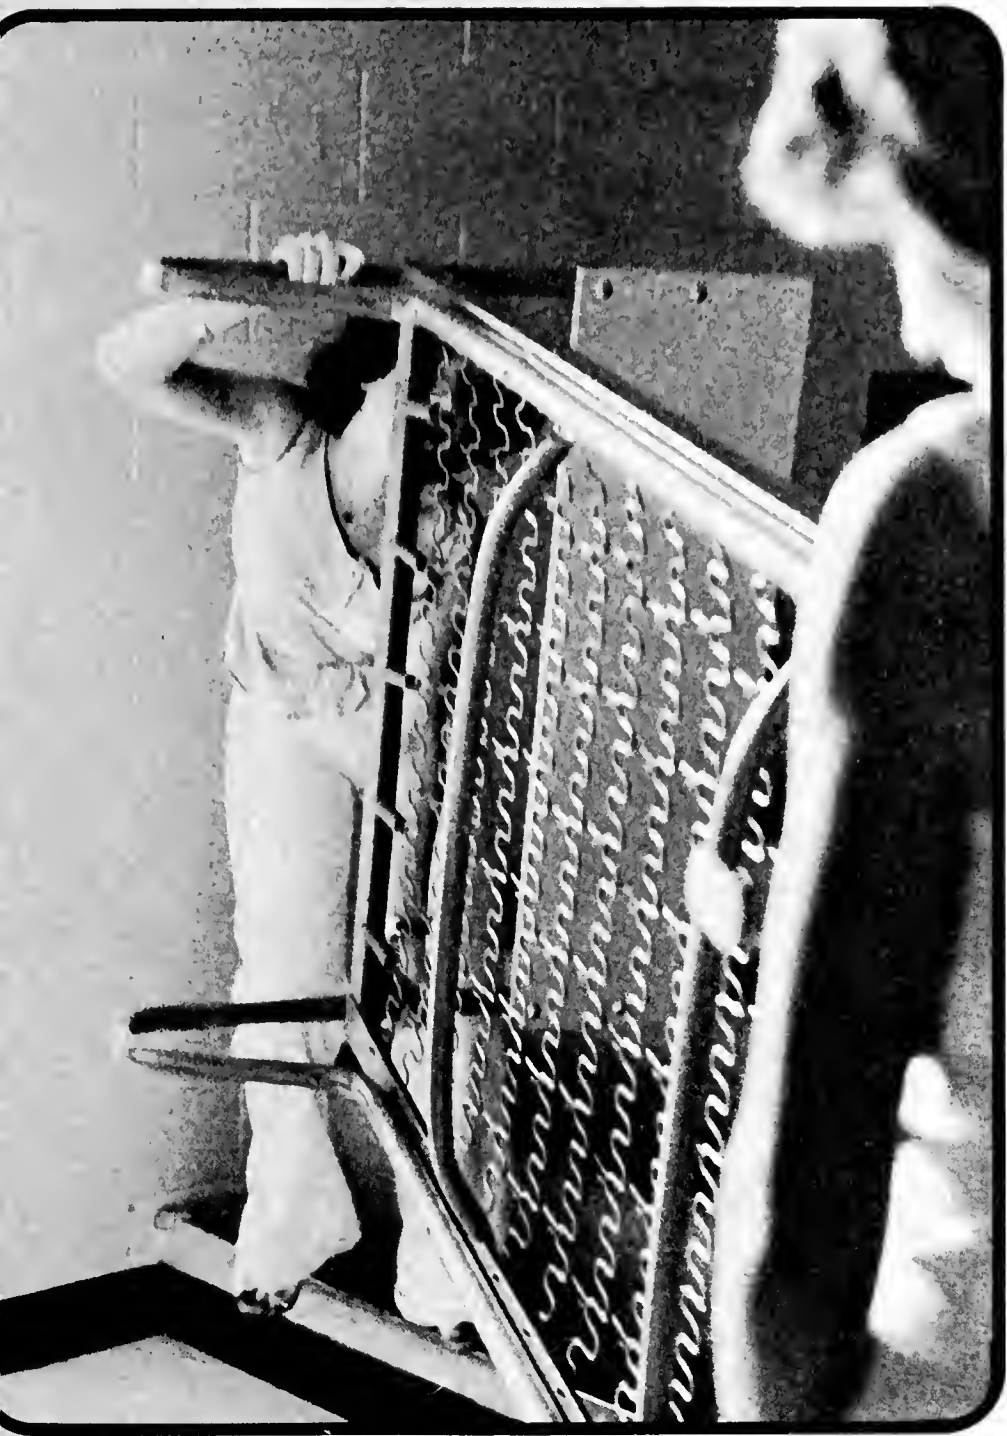

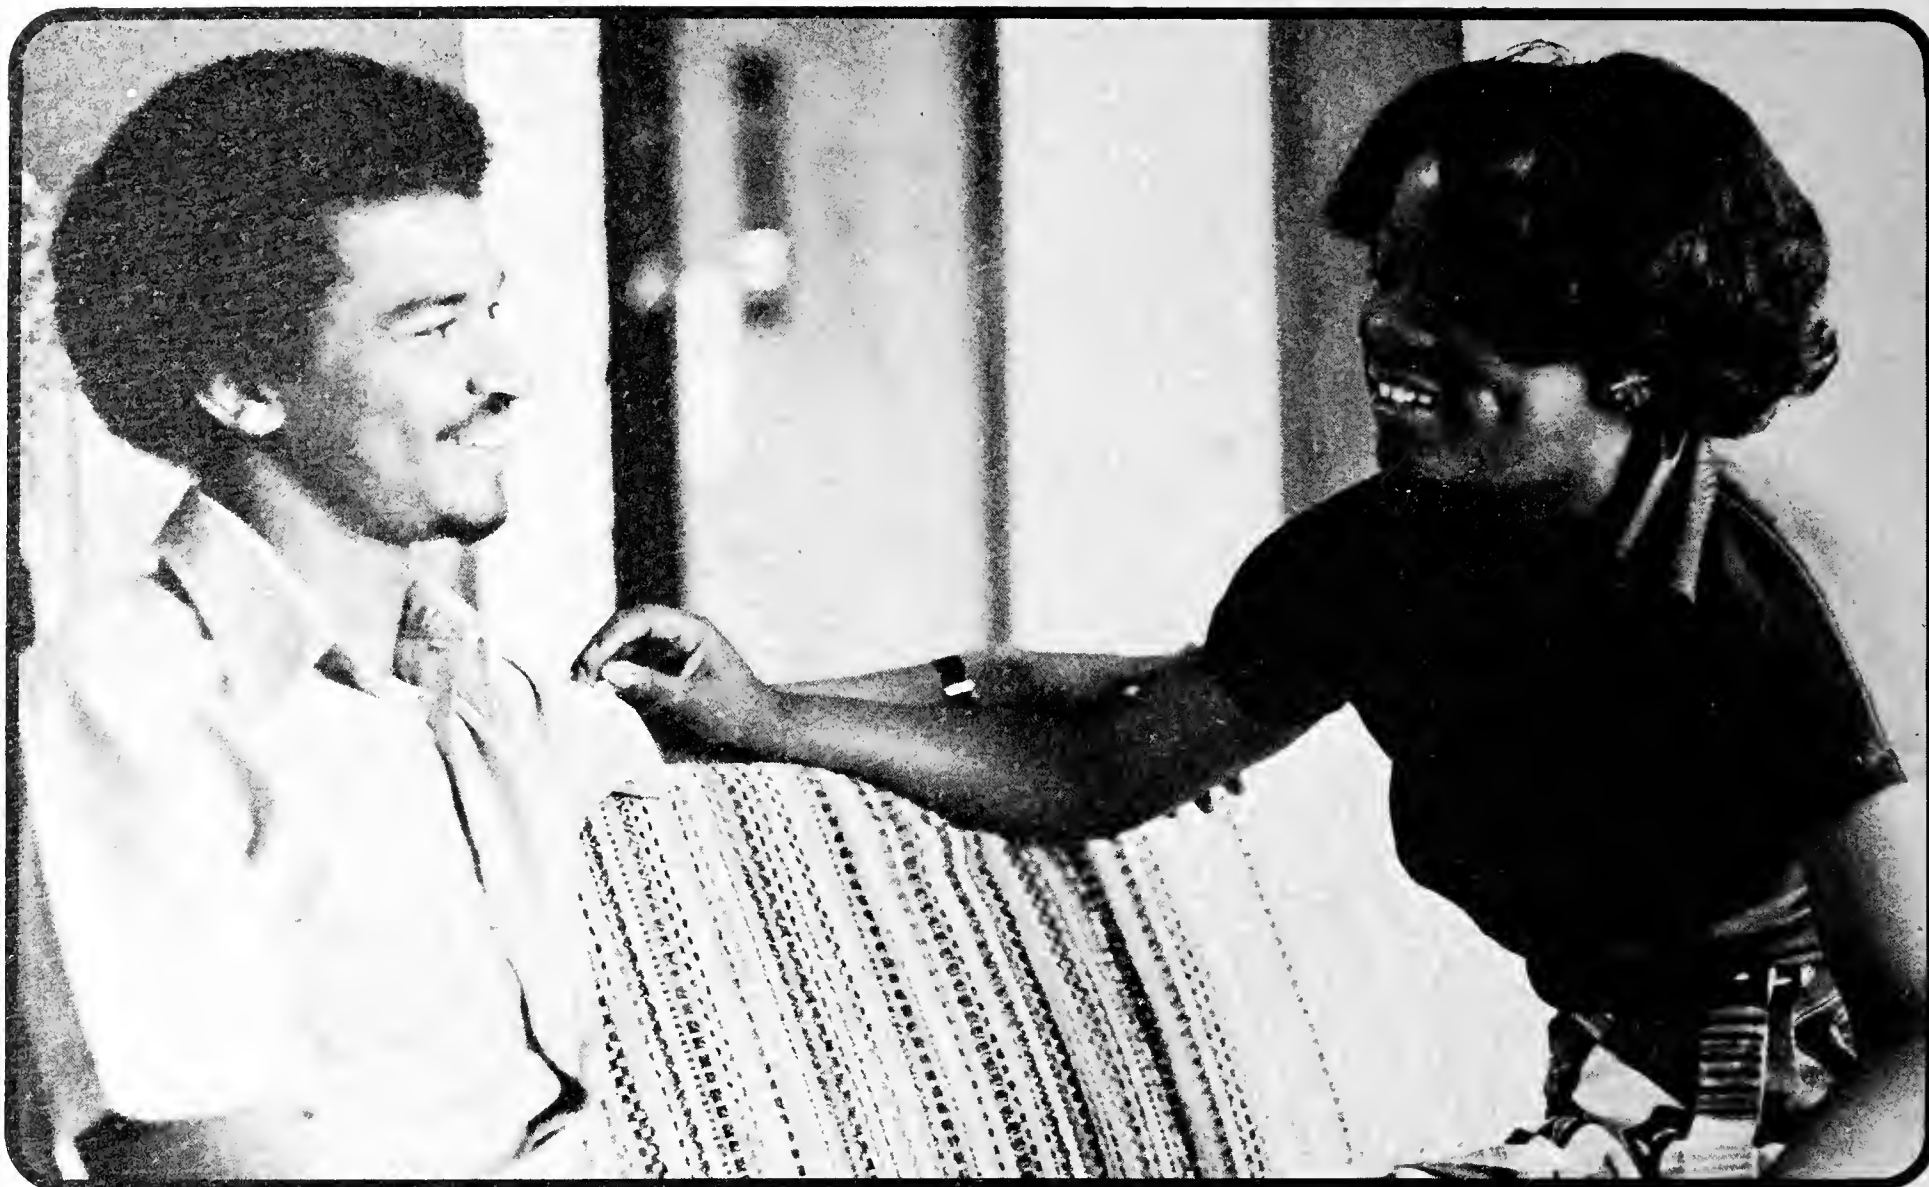

The HAPPENINGS here also include dorm life. Each suite develops individual traits which lure students to dorm living and make it more inviting. Whether students are talking to visitors, moving furniture, or getting ready for class, many activities are a part of dorm life.

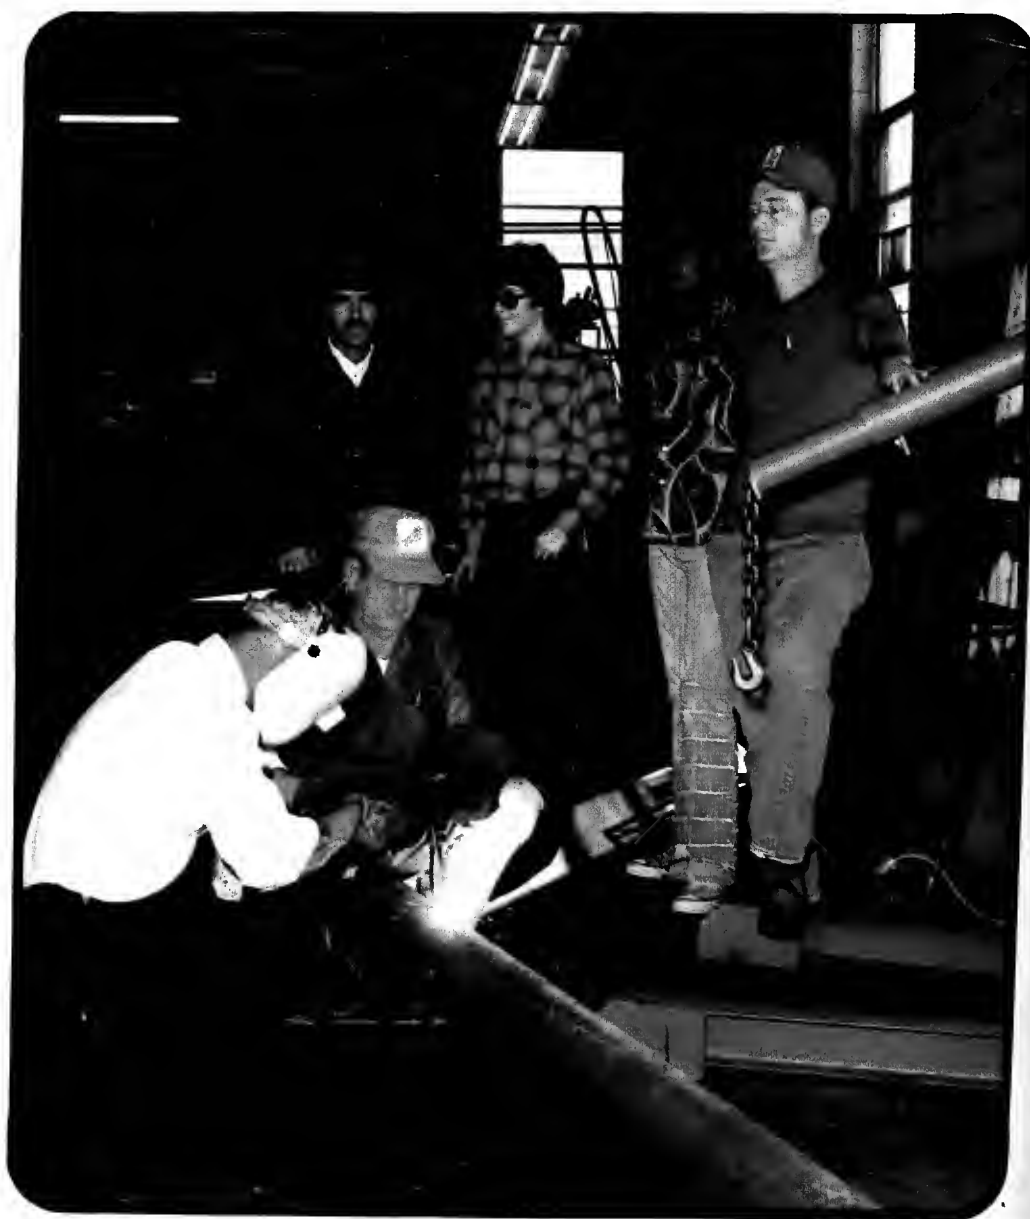

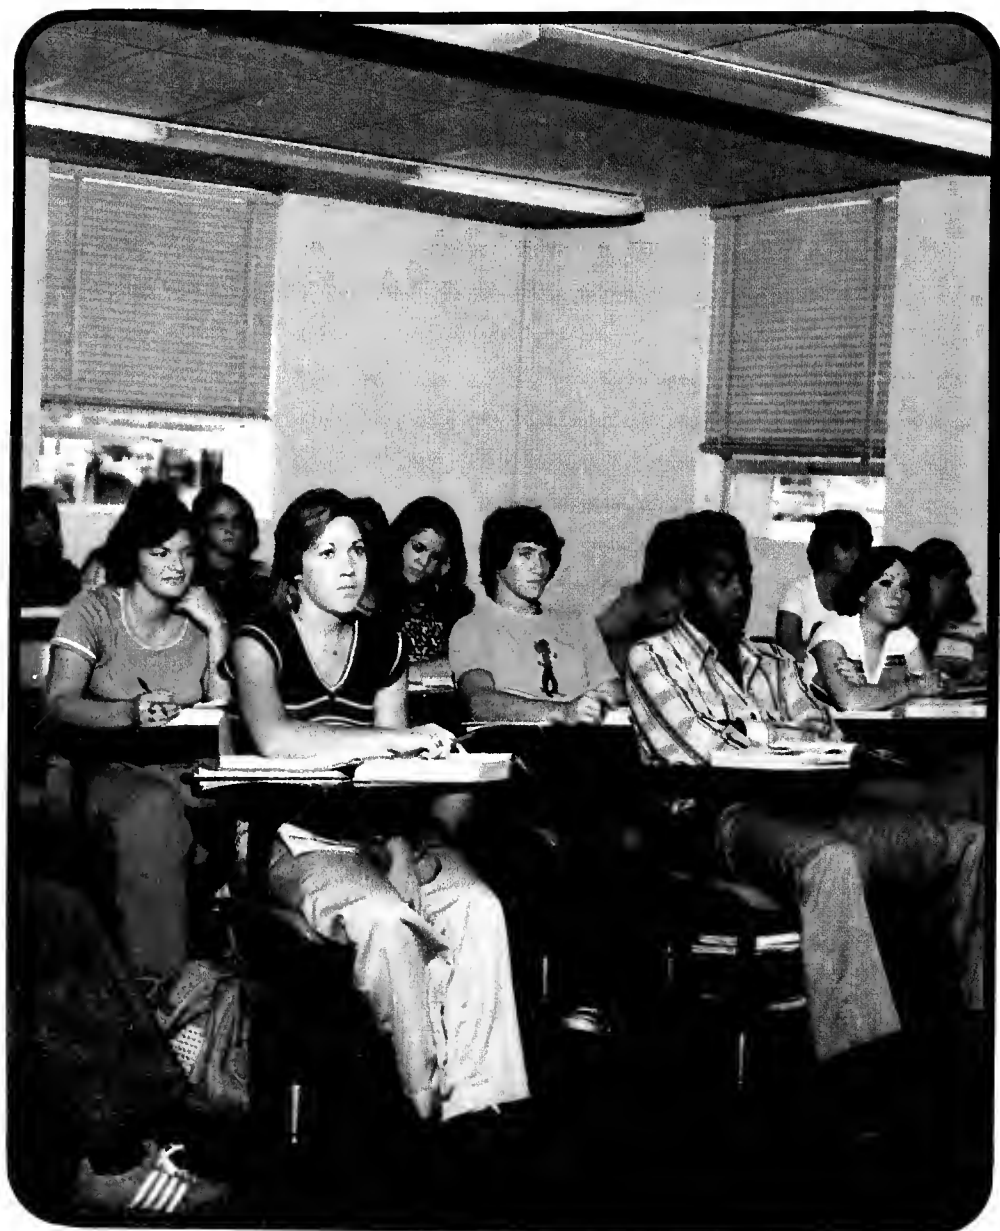

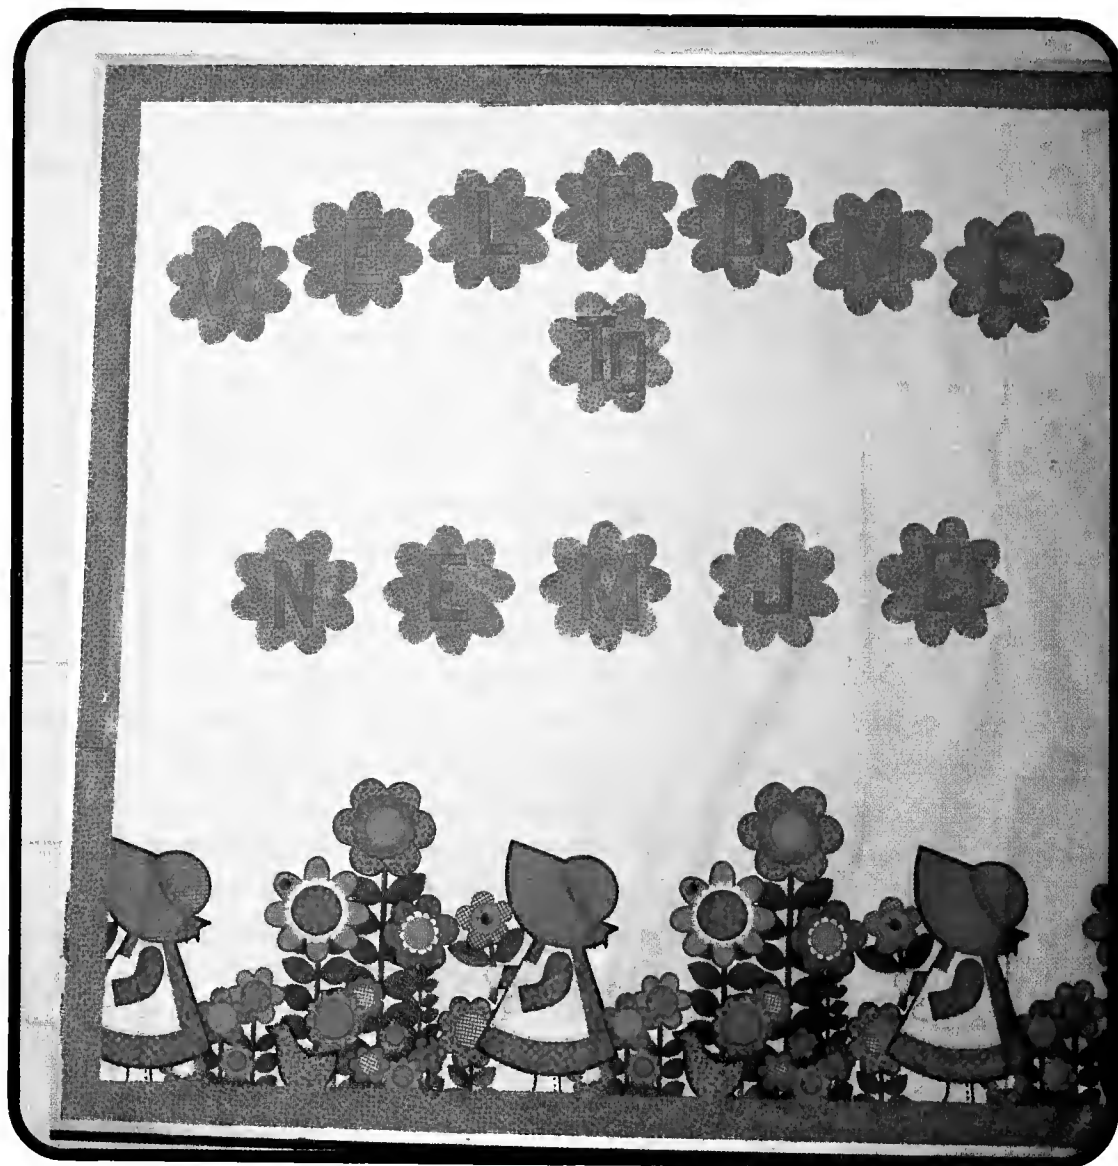

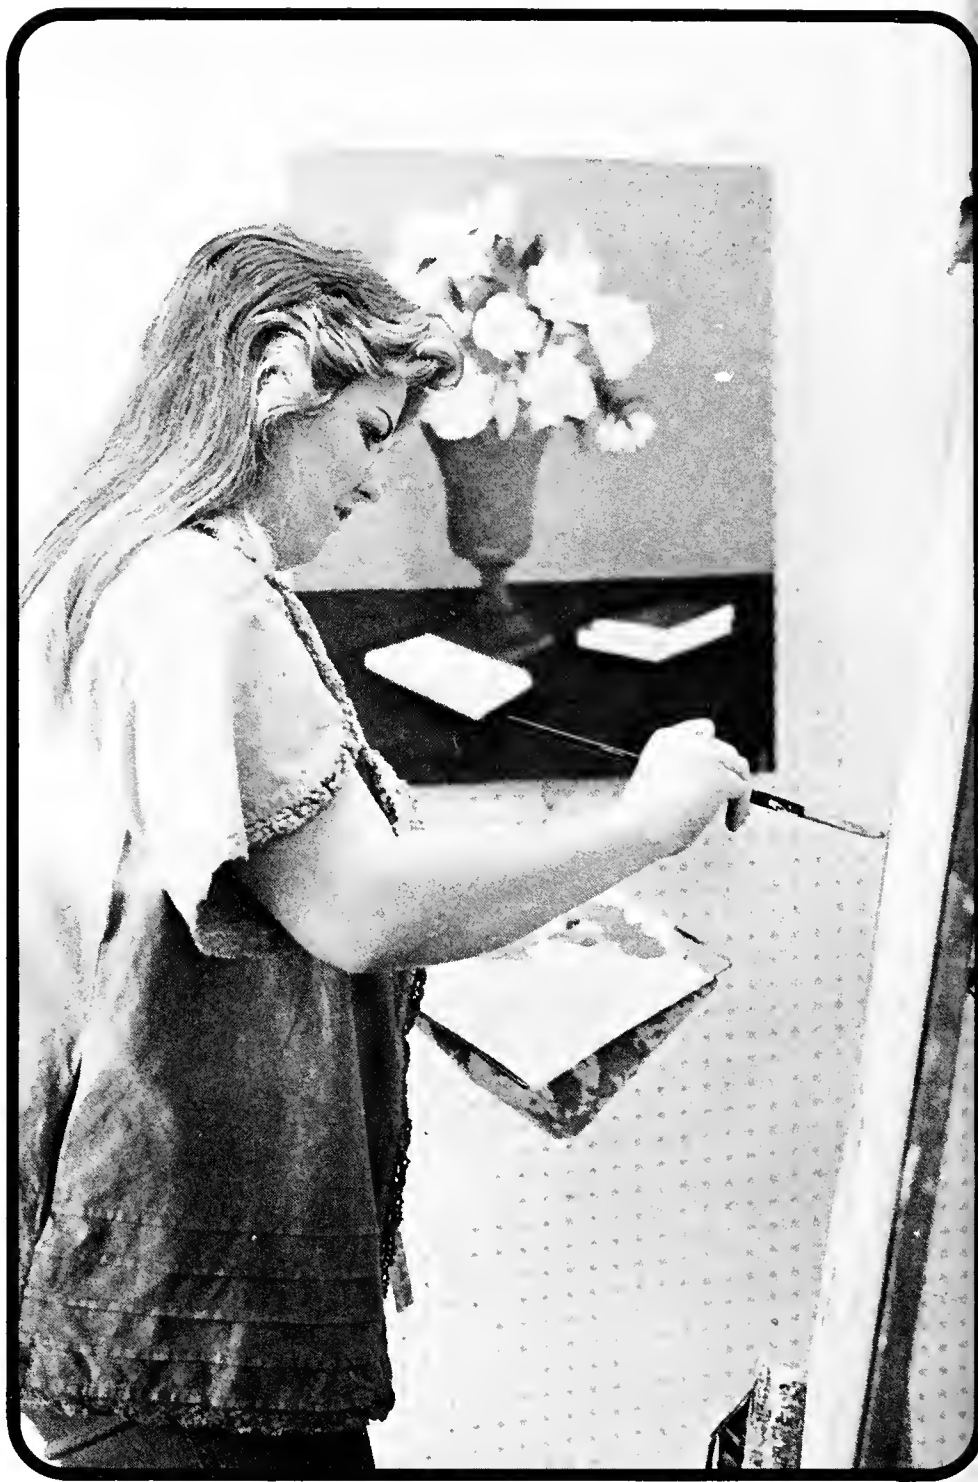

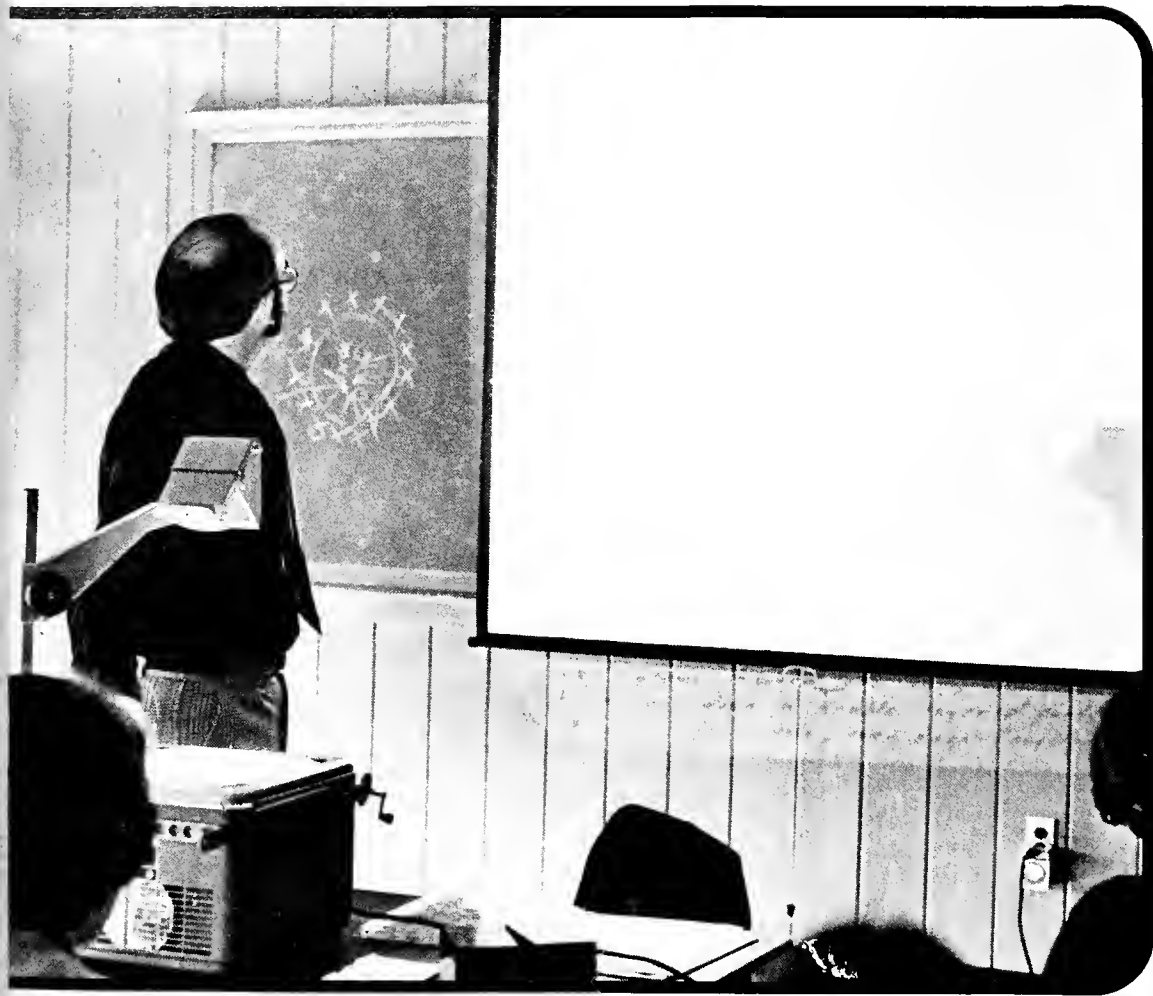

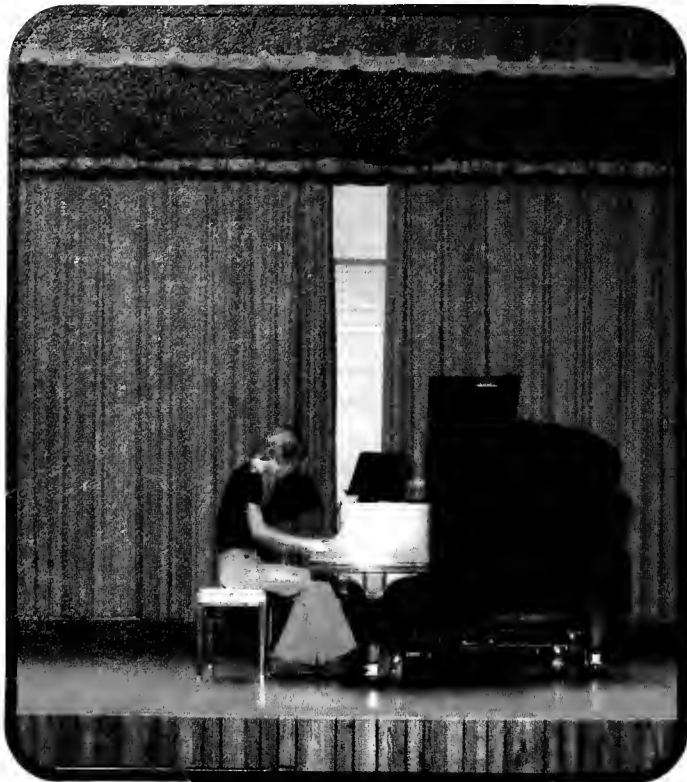

The curriculum is arranged so that it fulfills the needs and desires of each individual participating in the many activities at Northeast. The wide variety of classes available here play a major role in the HAPPENINGS here. Each student has the opportunity to find the area of study best suited for his personal abilities and goals. The diverse selection of courses range from art to building and trades, English to cosmetology, history to science, and music to business.

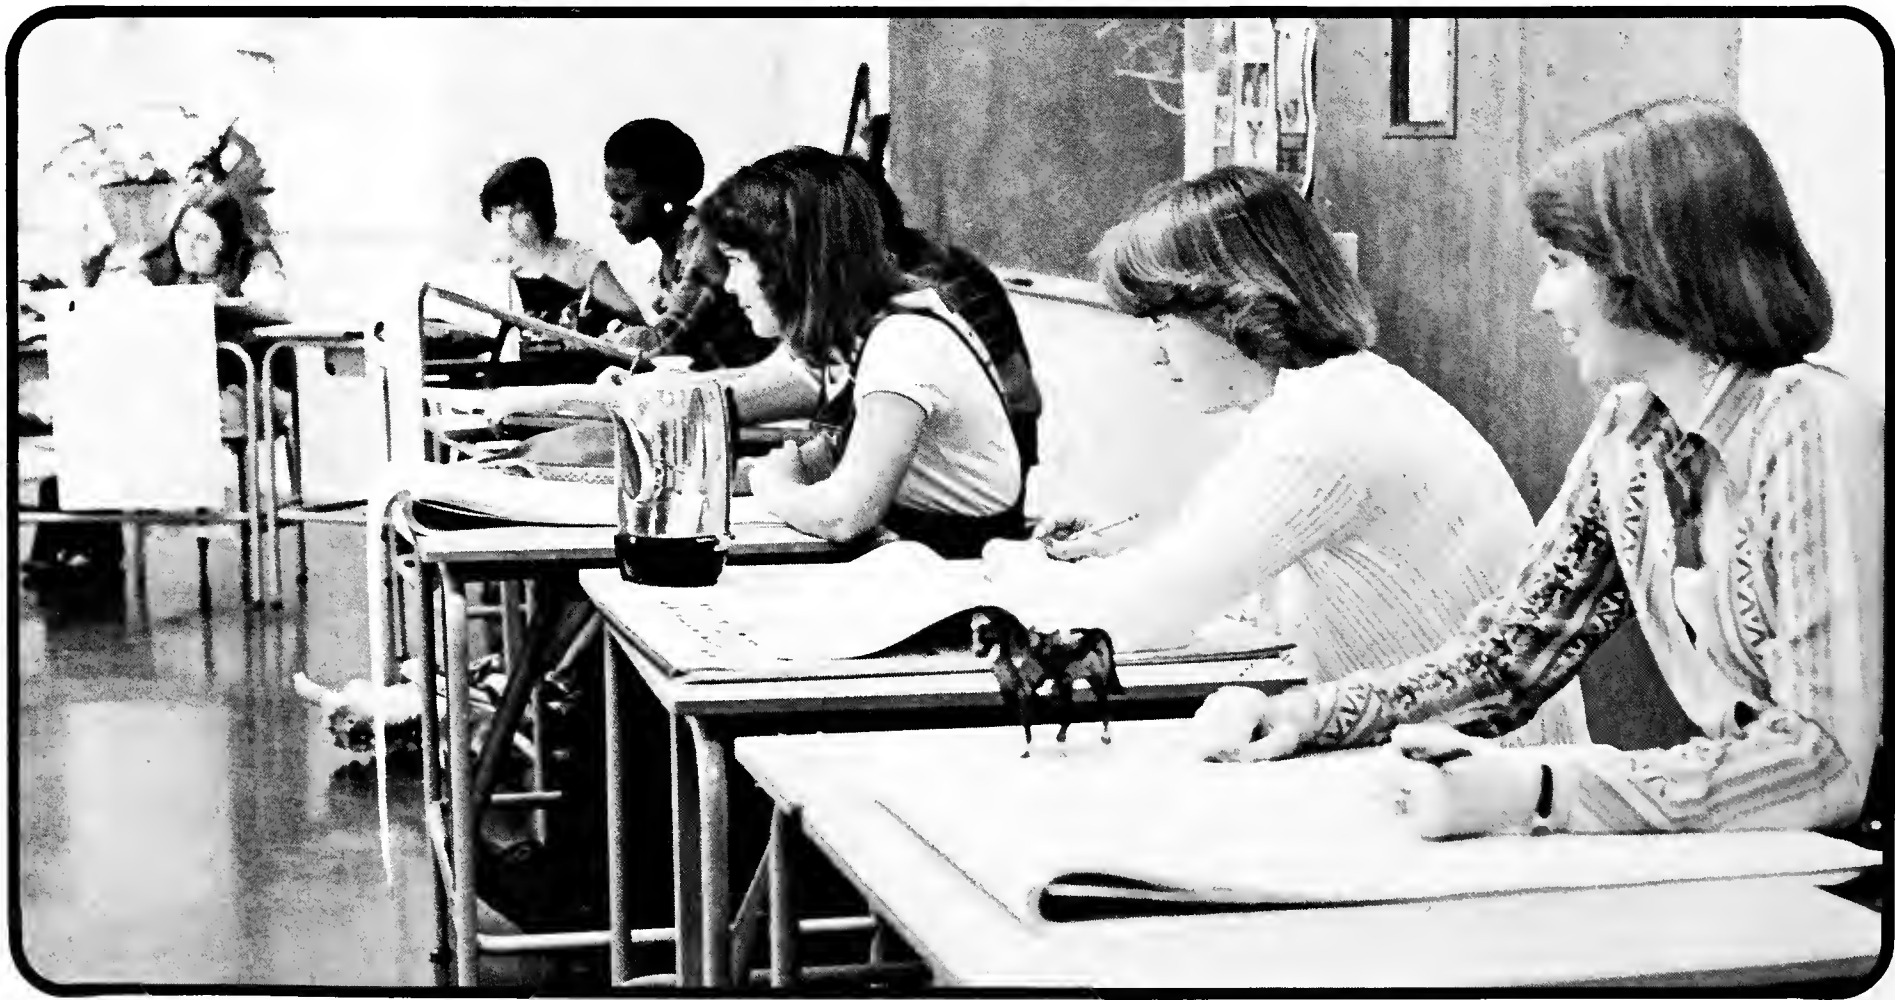

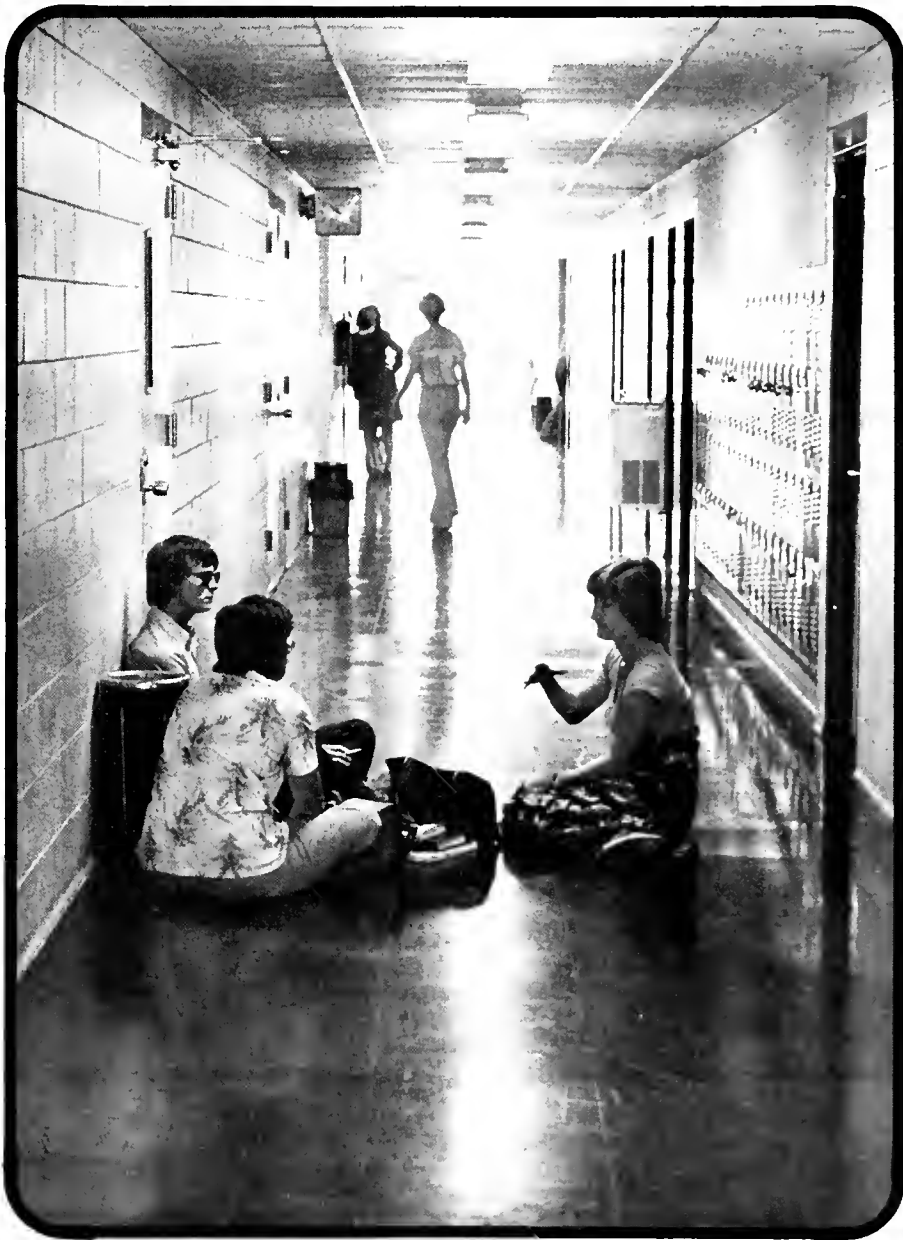

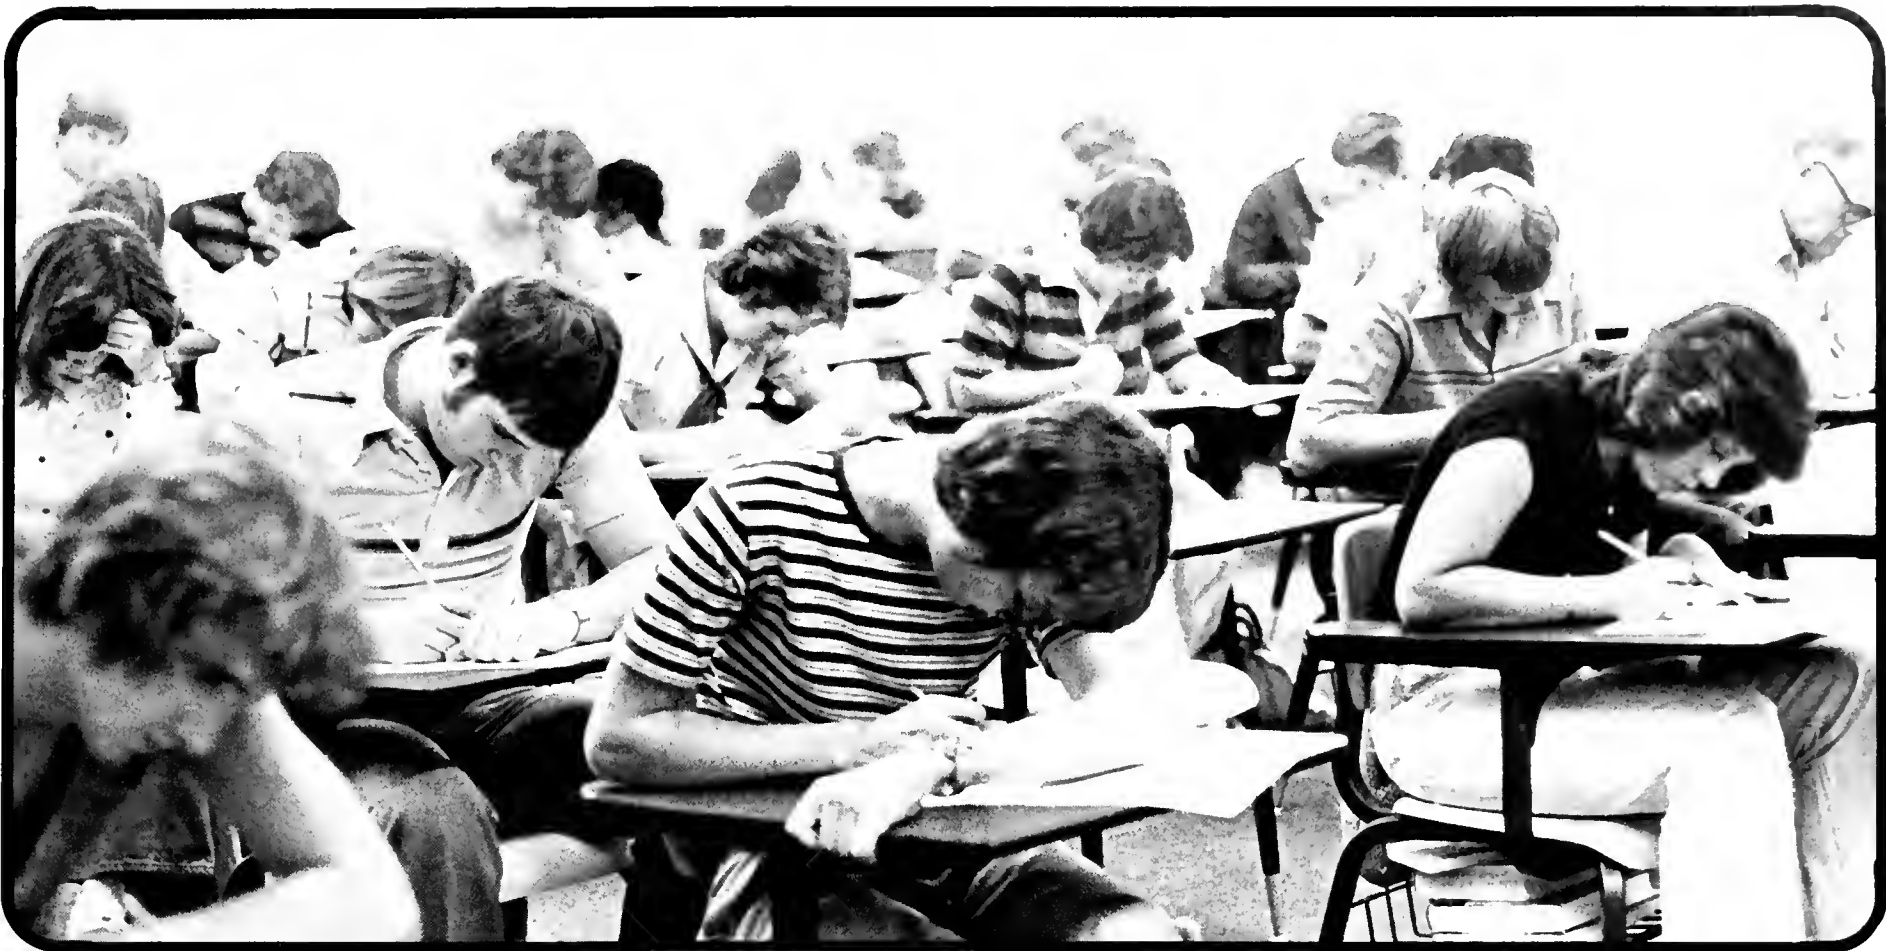

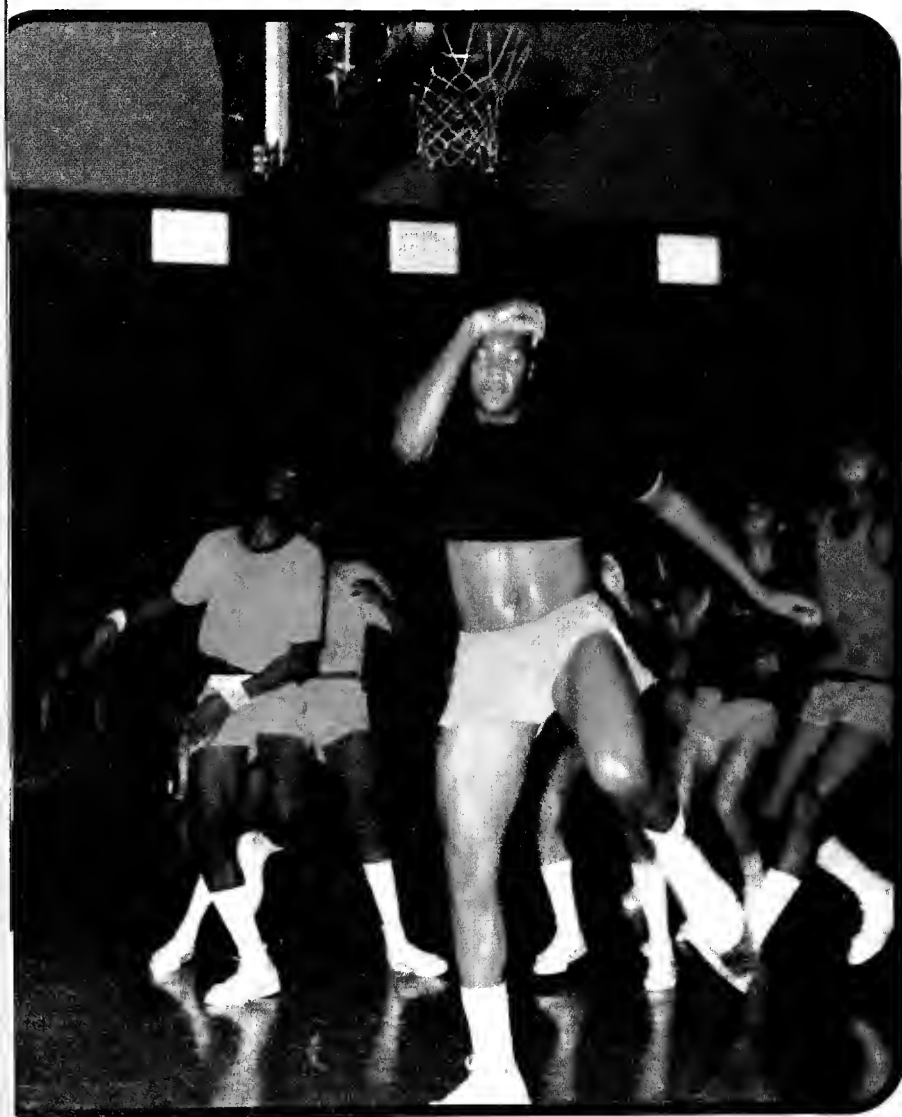

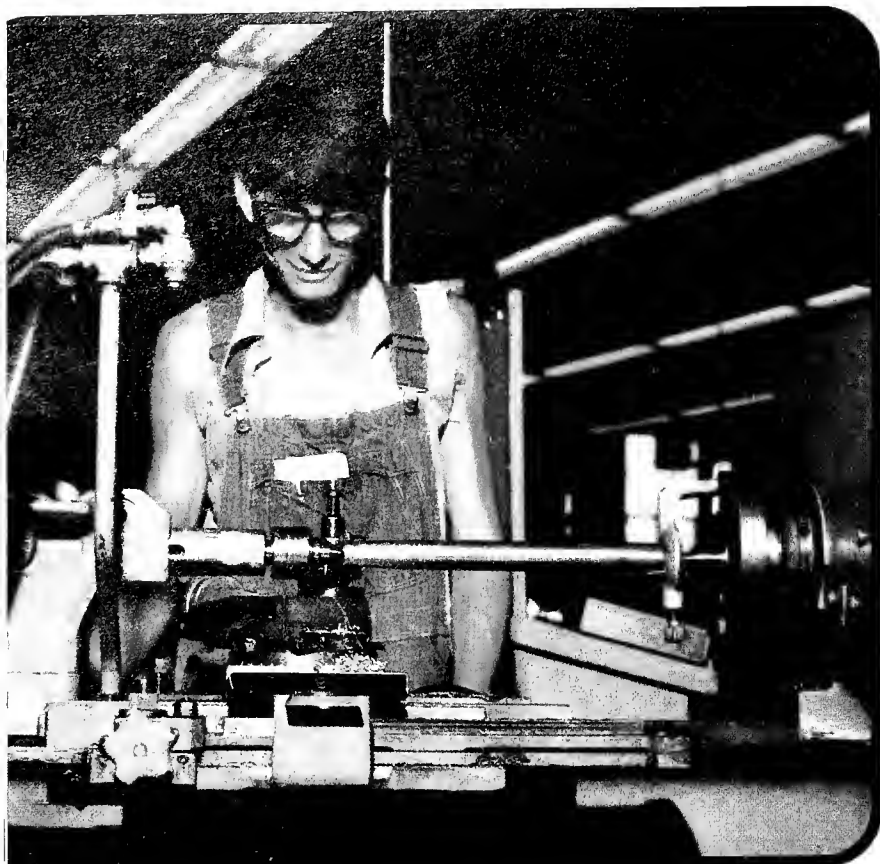

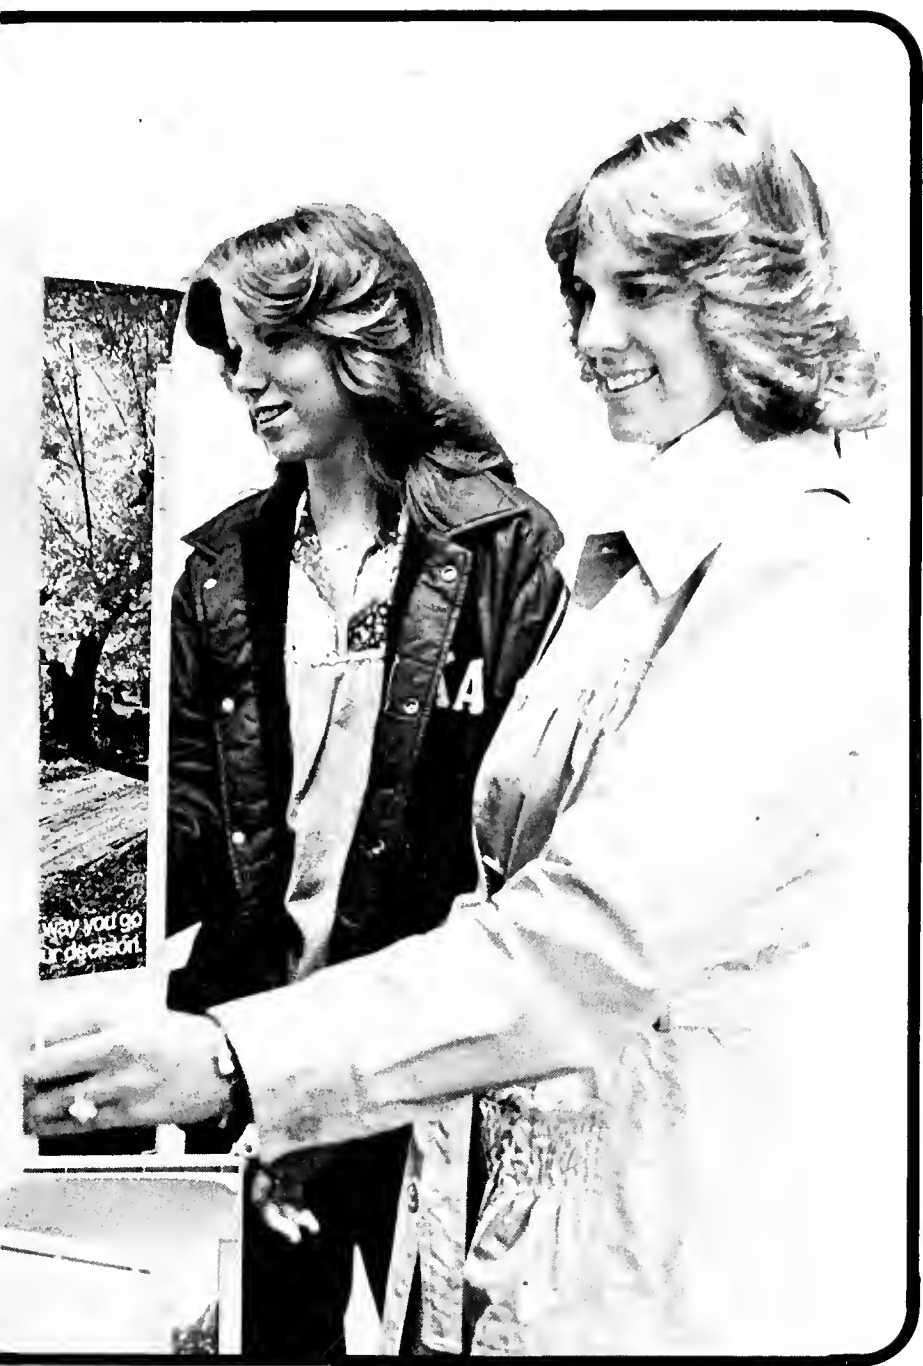

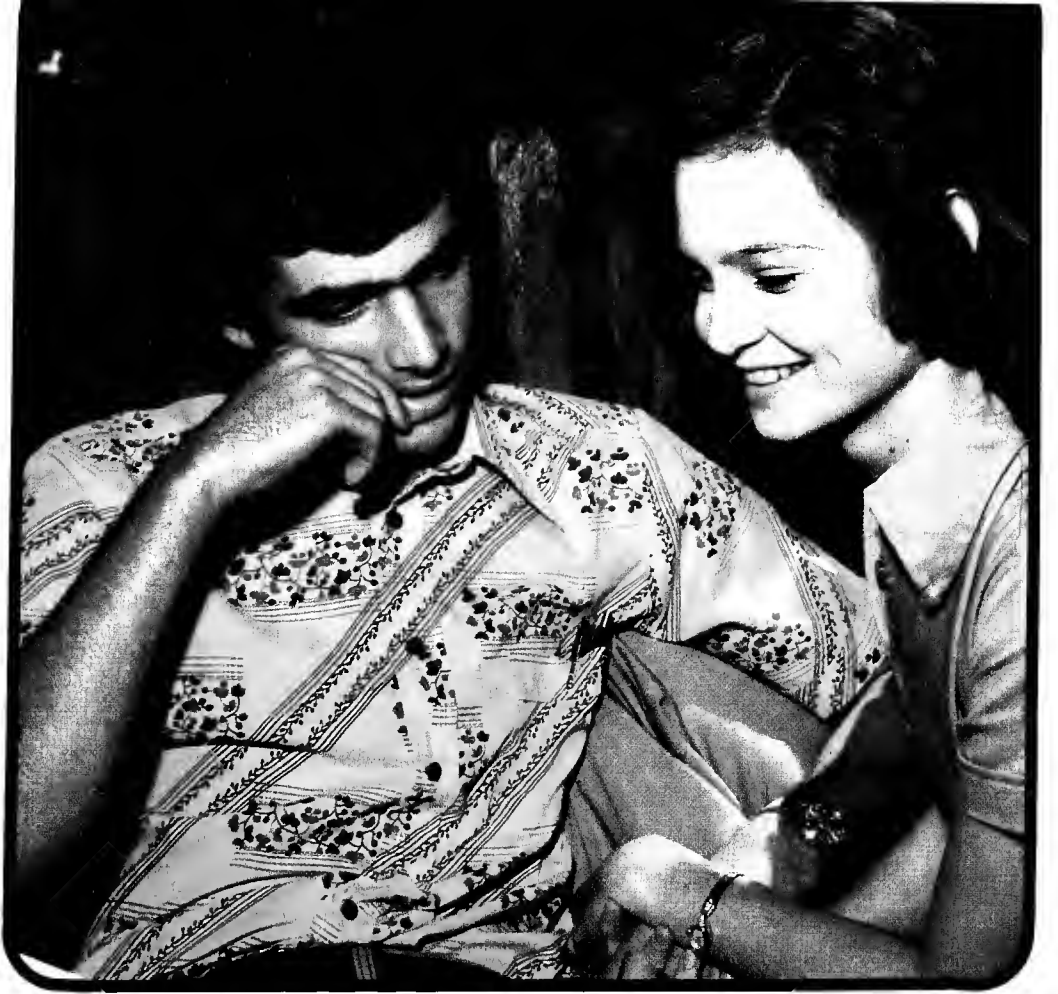

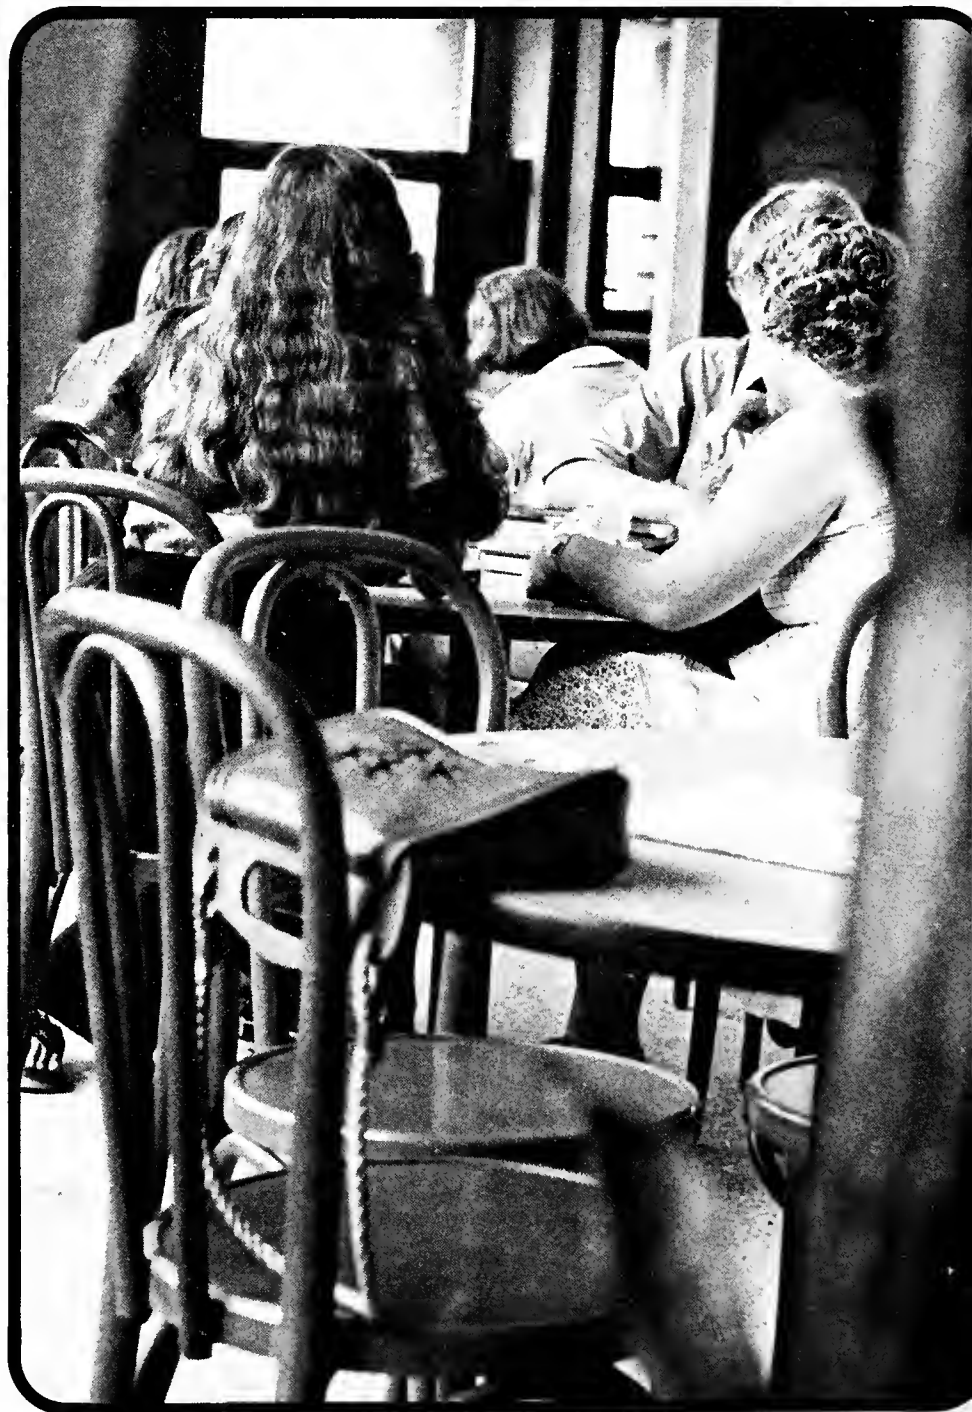

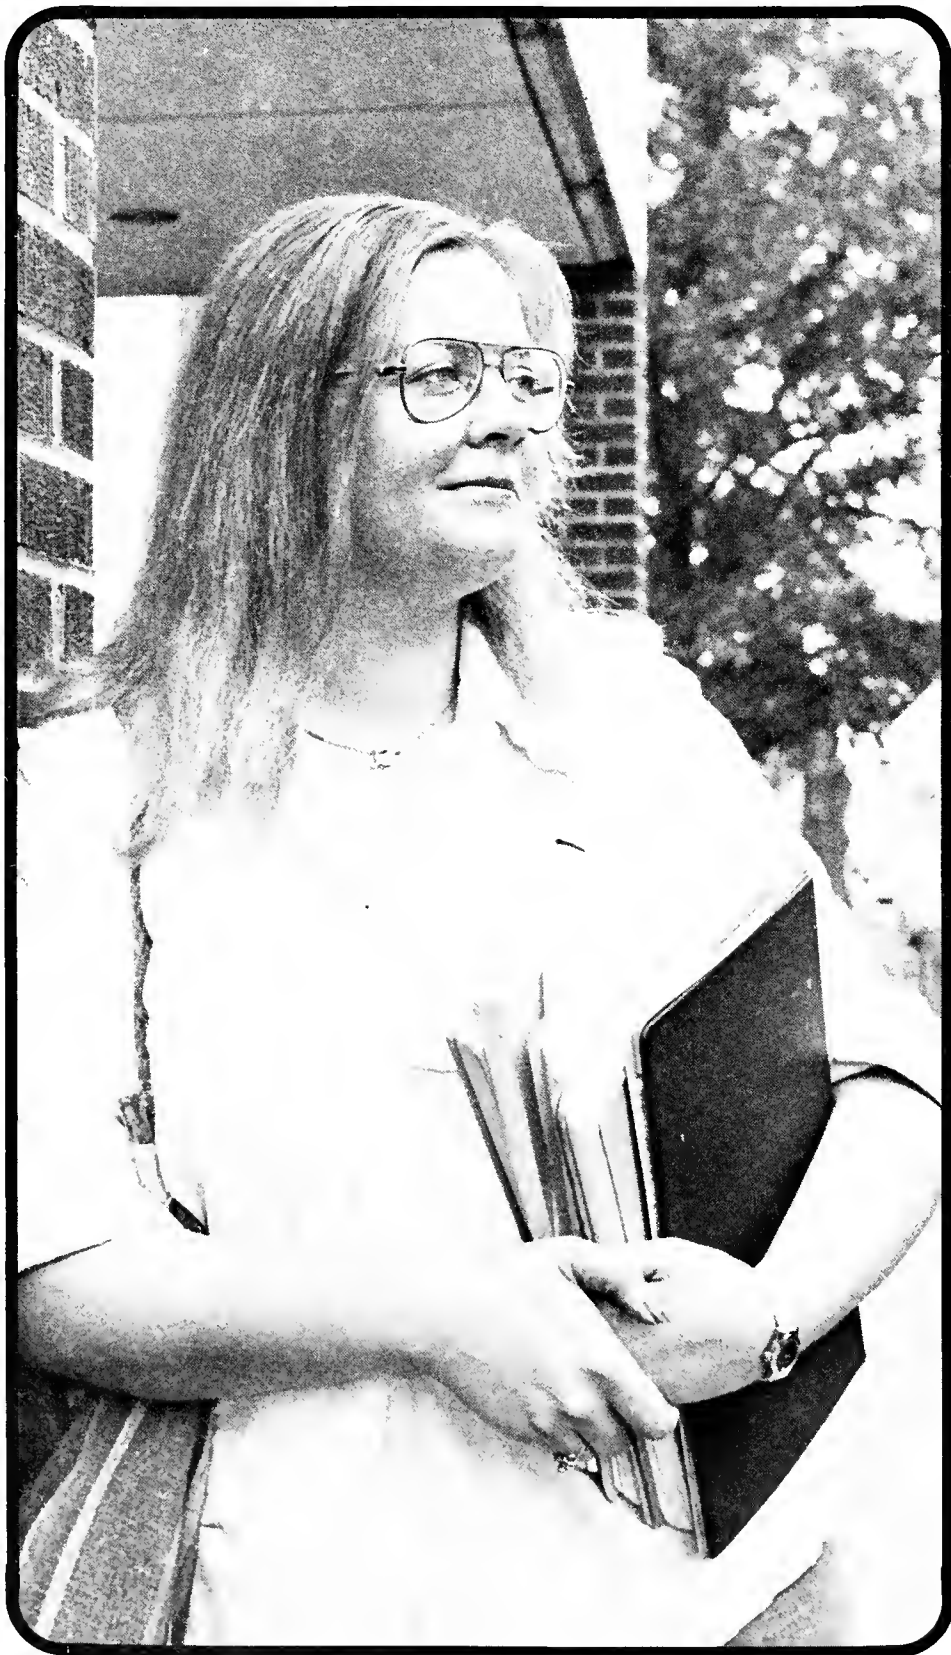

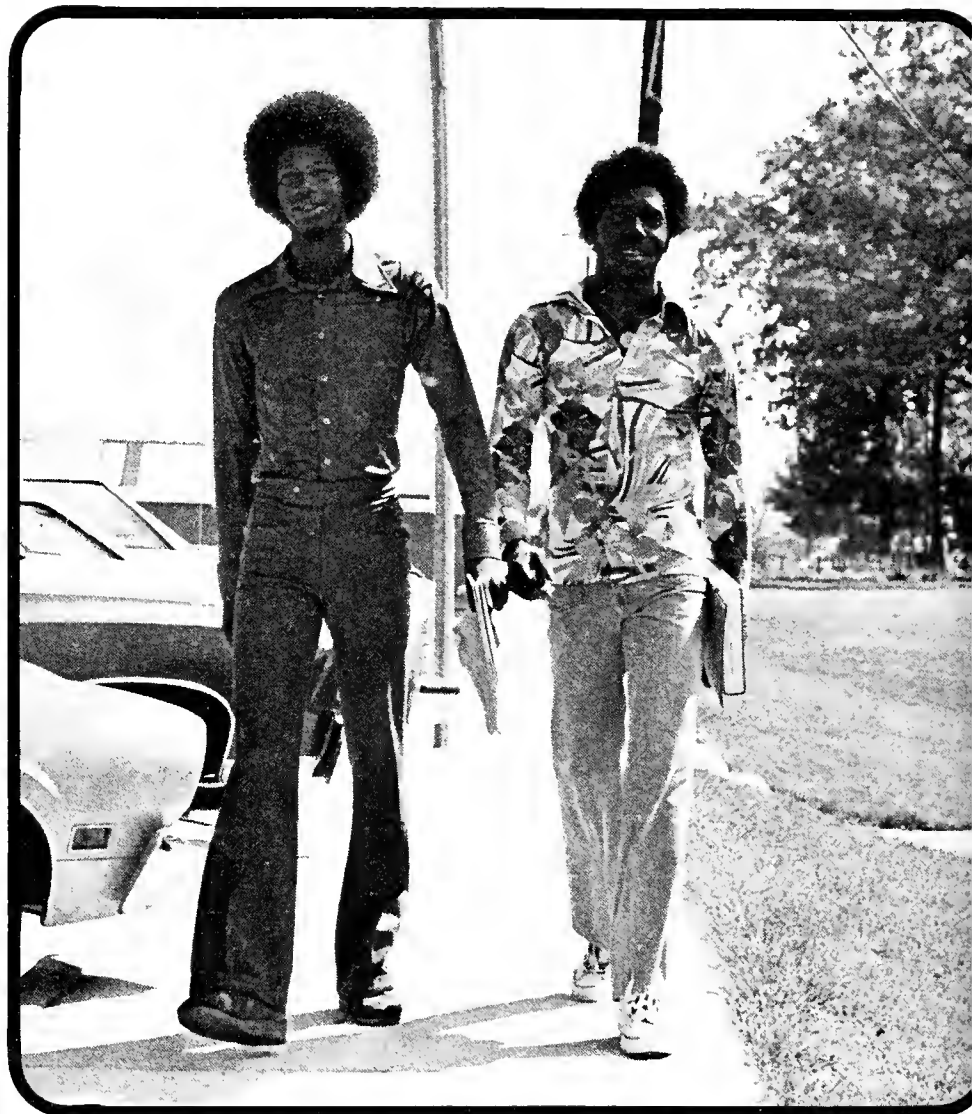

Social life is an essential part of the HAPPENINGS at Northeast. To retreat from the hectic world of studying, a student needs a place where he can go to relax, to be with friends, or just to be alone. These peaceful escapes have different meanings to different people, and they often include making new friendships or strengthening old ones. Others prefer to browse through the bookstore, sit and talk with friends, or find enjoyment in the game room. Regardless of what a person chooses to do with his free time, he is provided with the necessary relief from the pressures and responsibilities that come with being a college student.

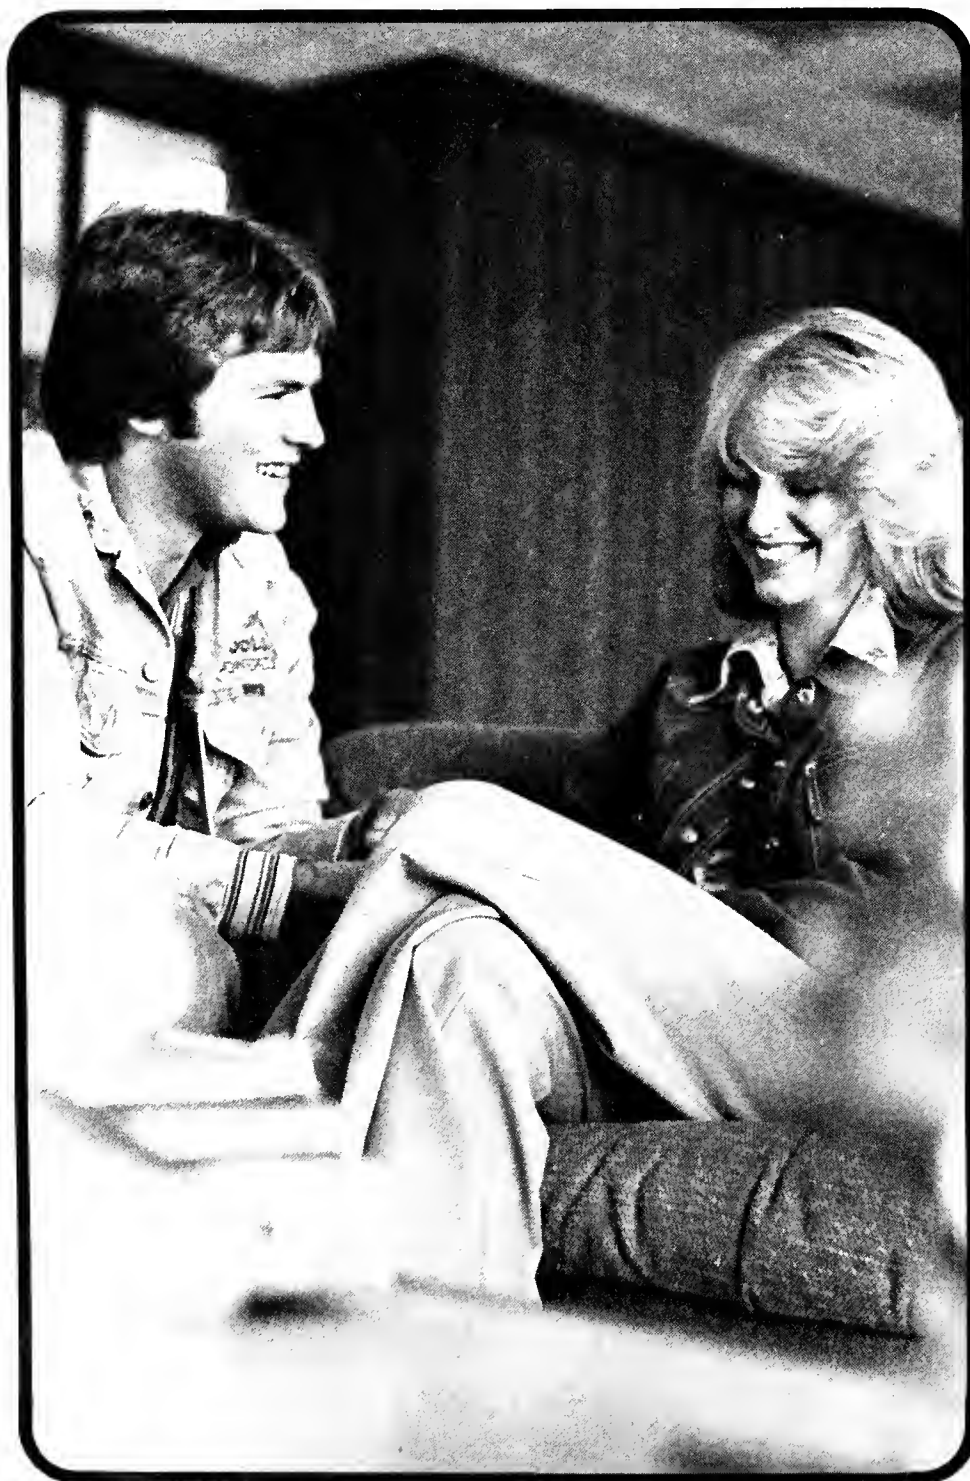

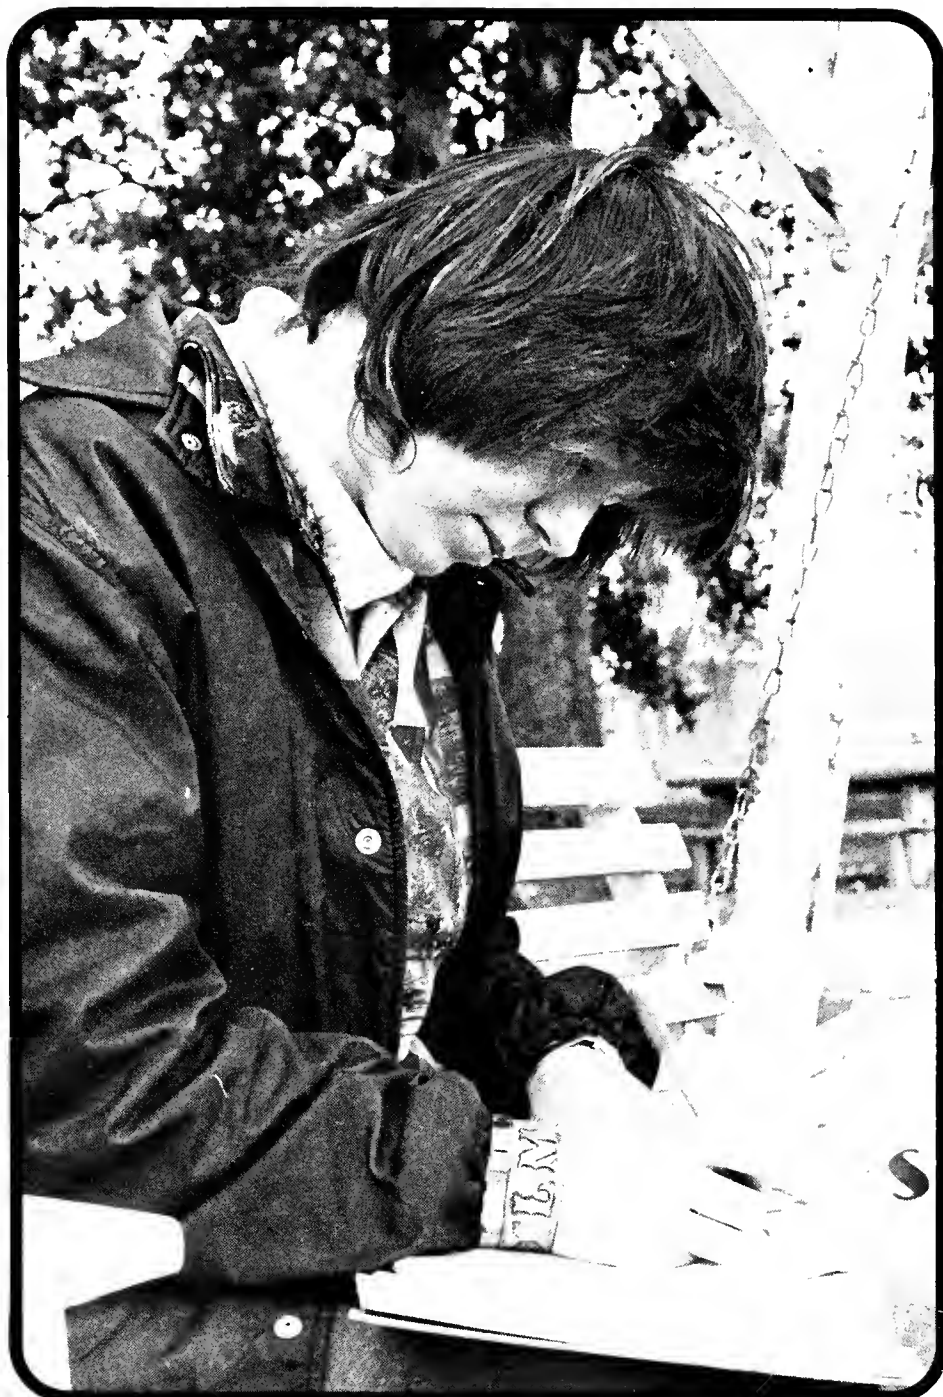

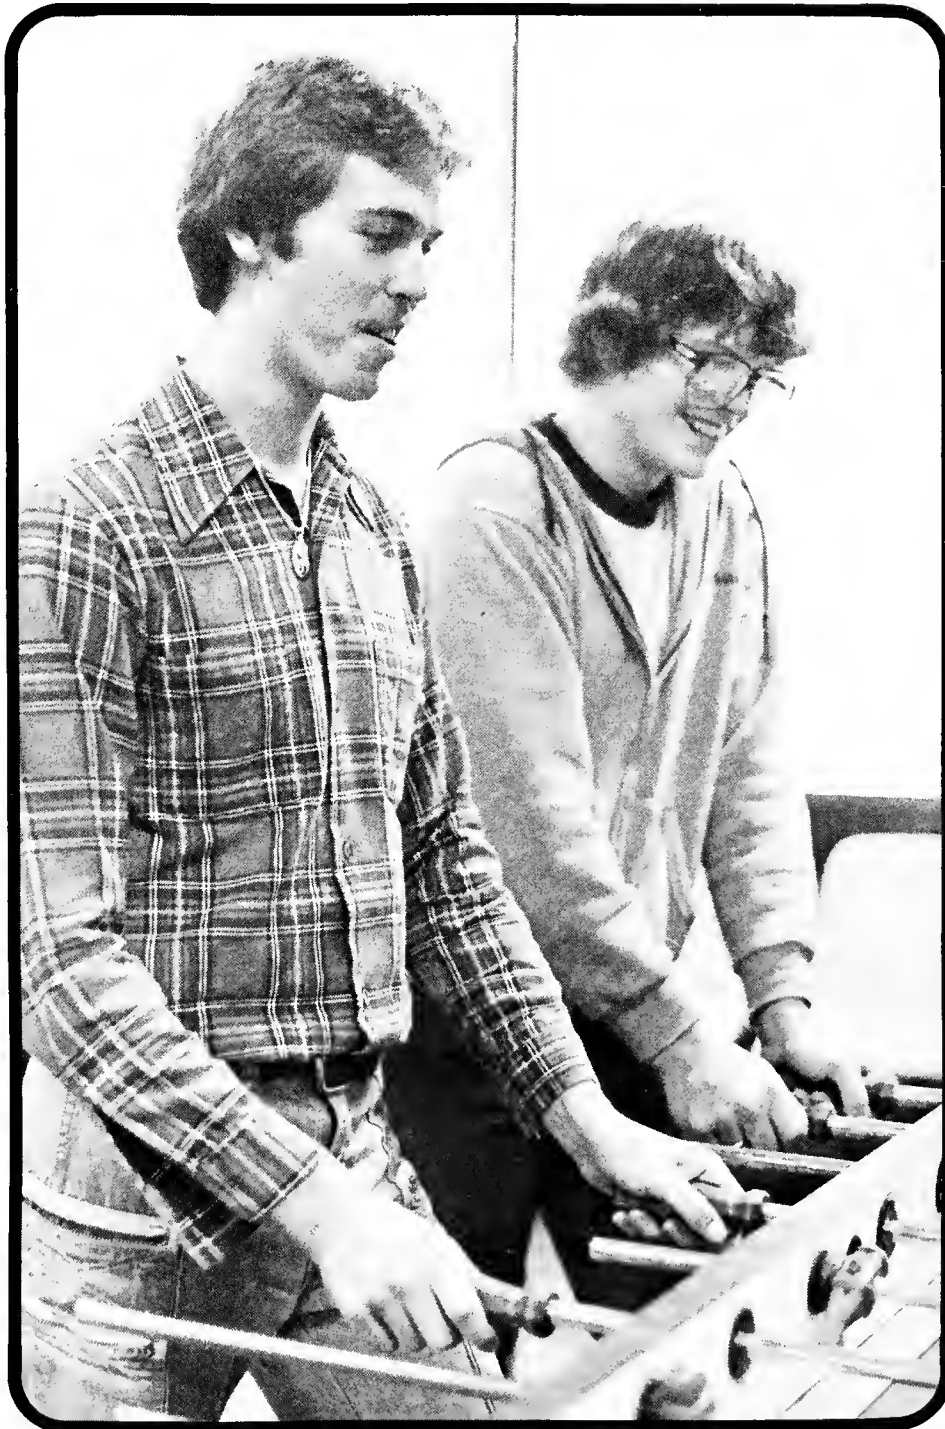

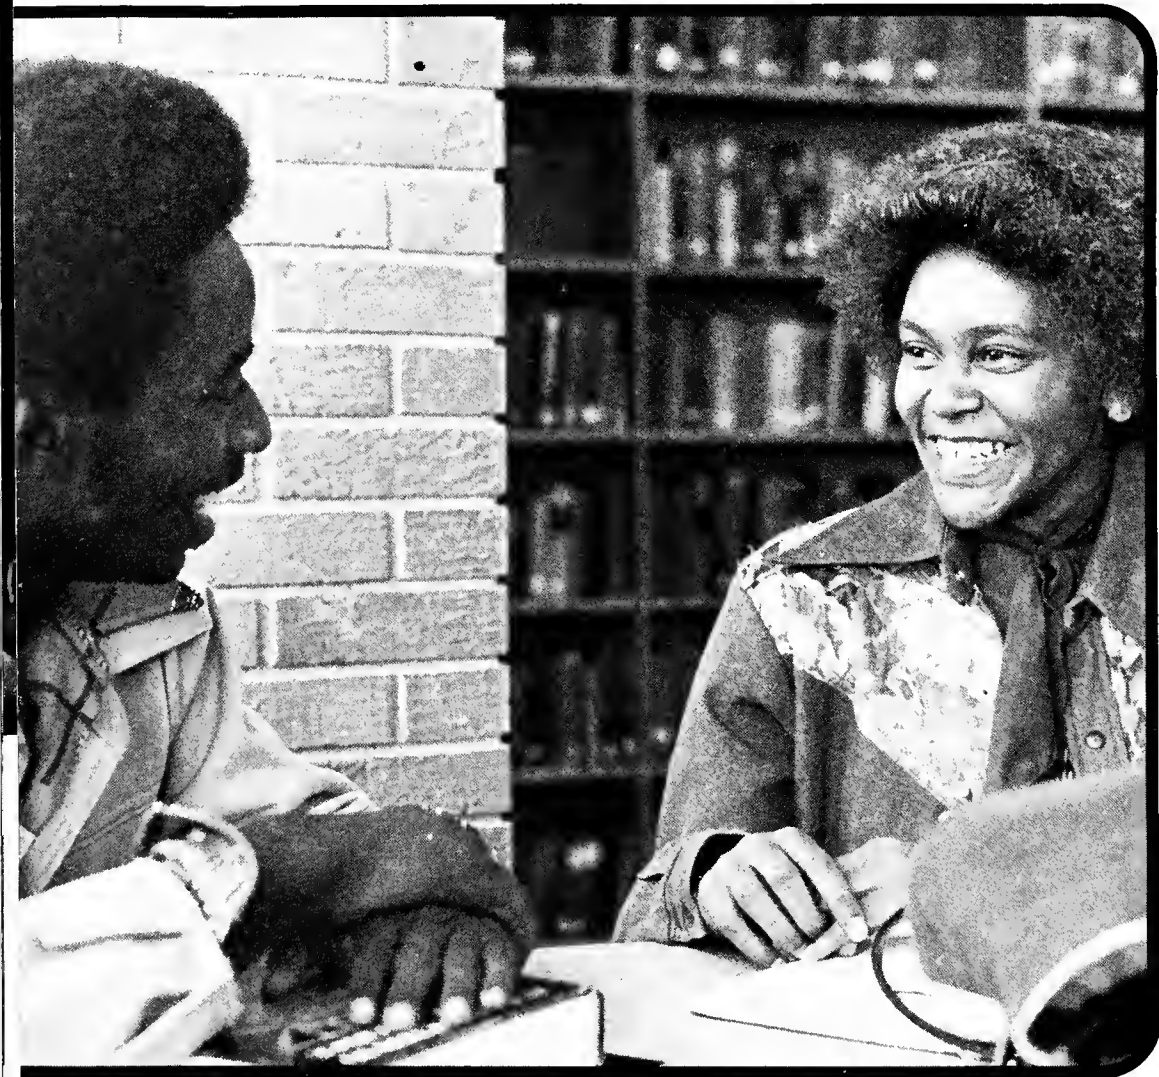

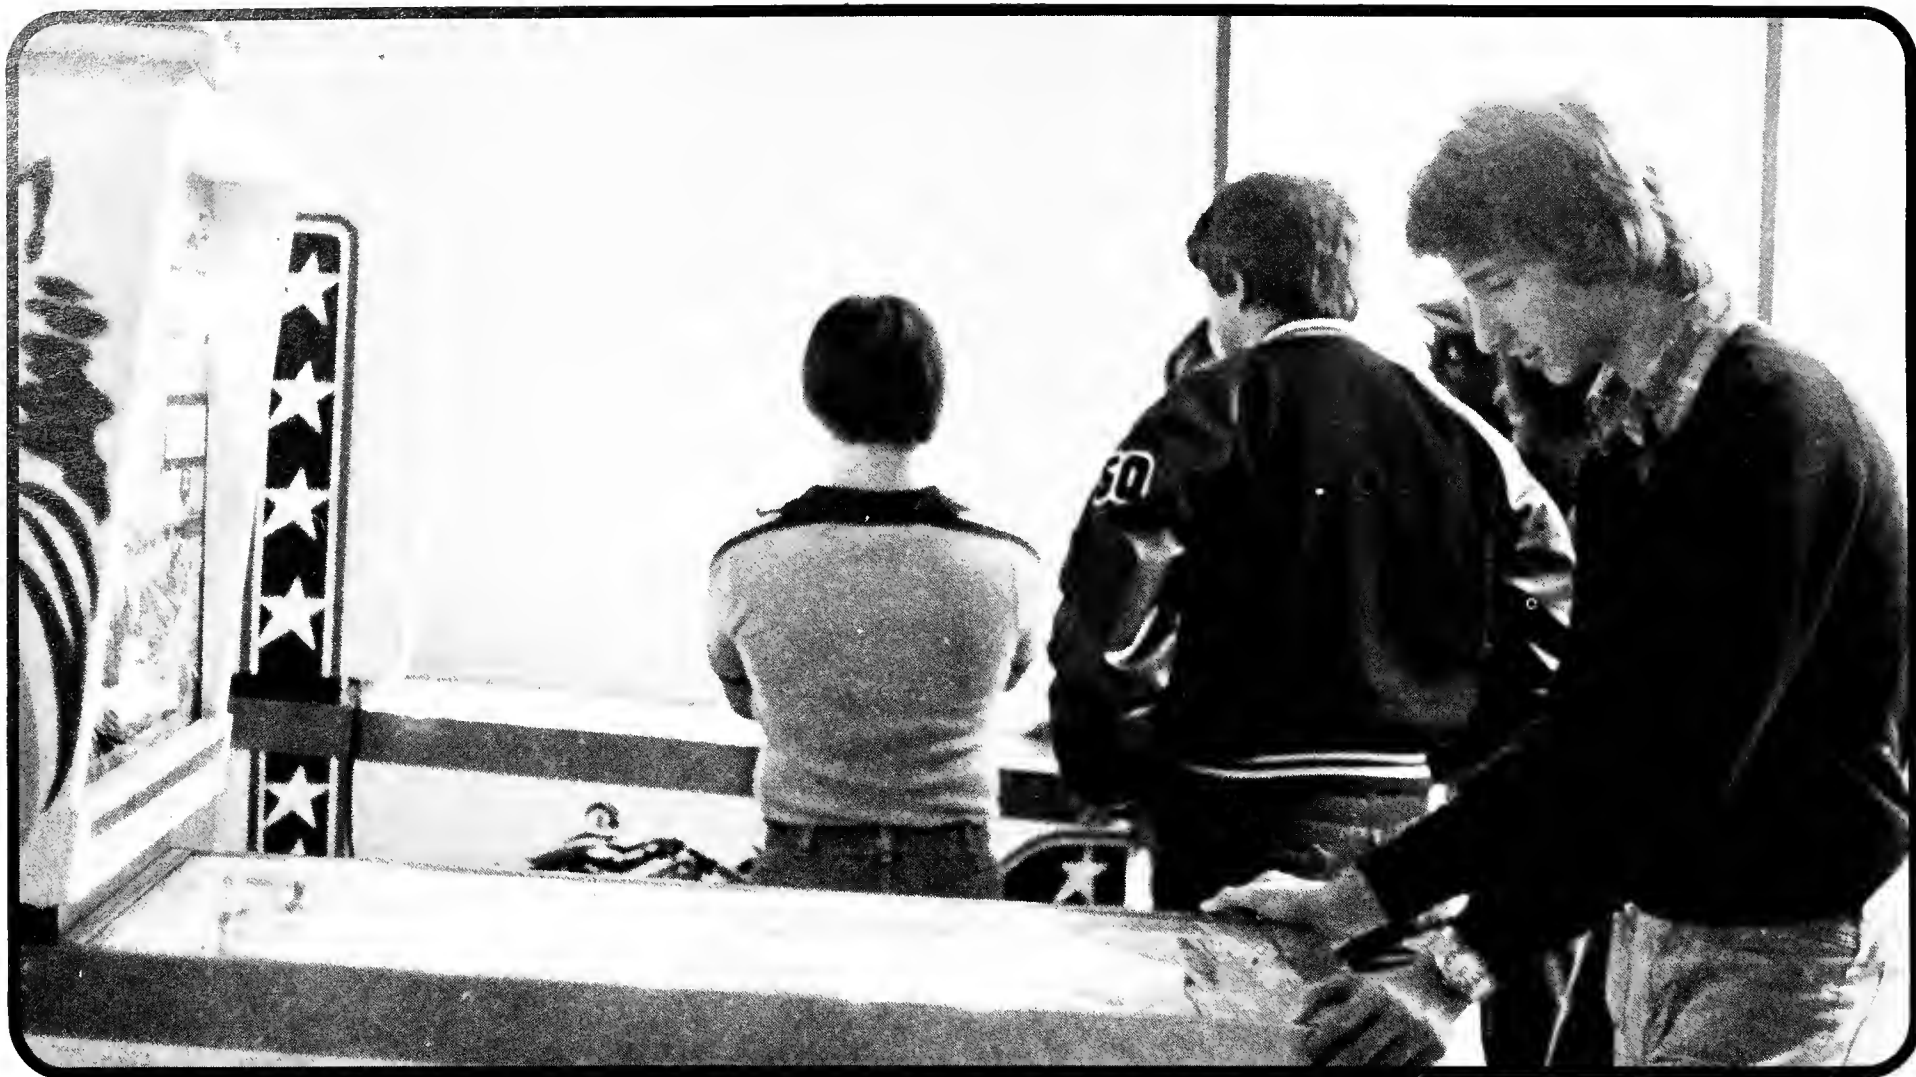

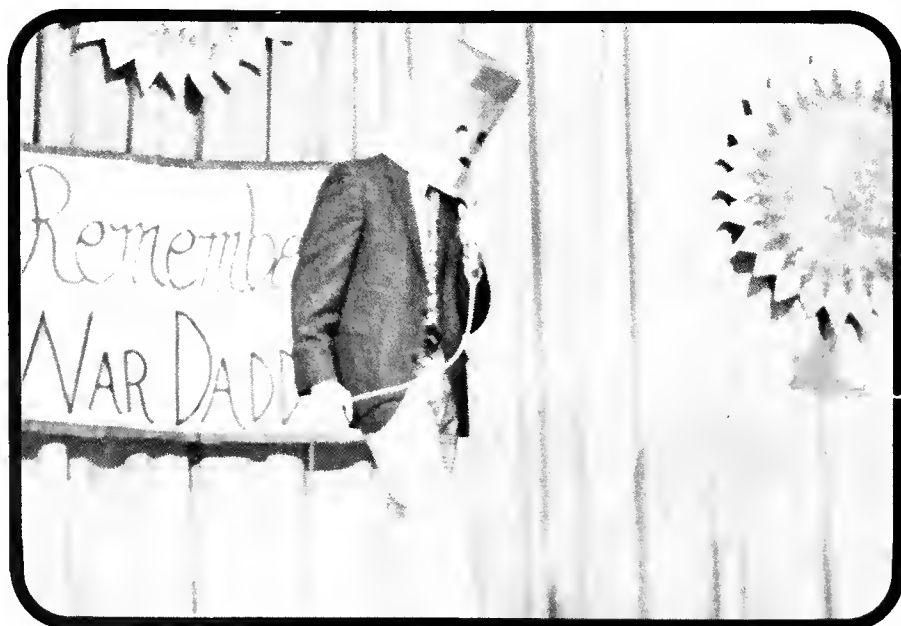

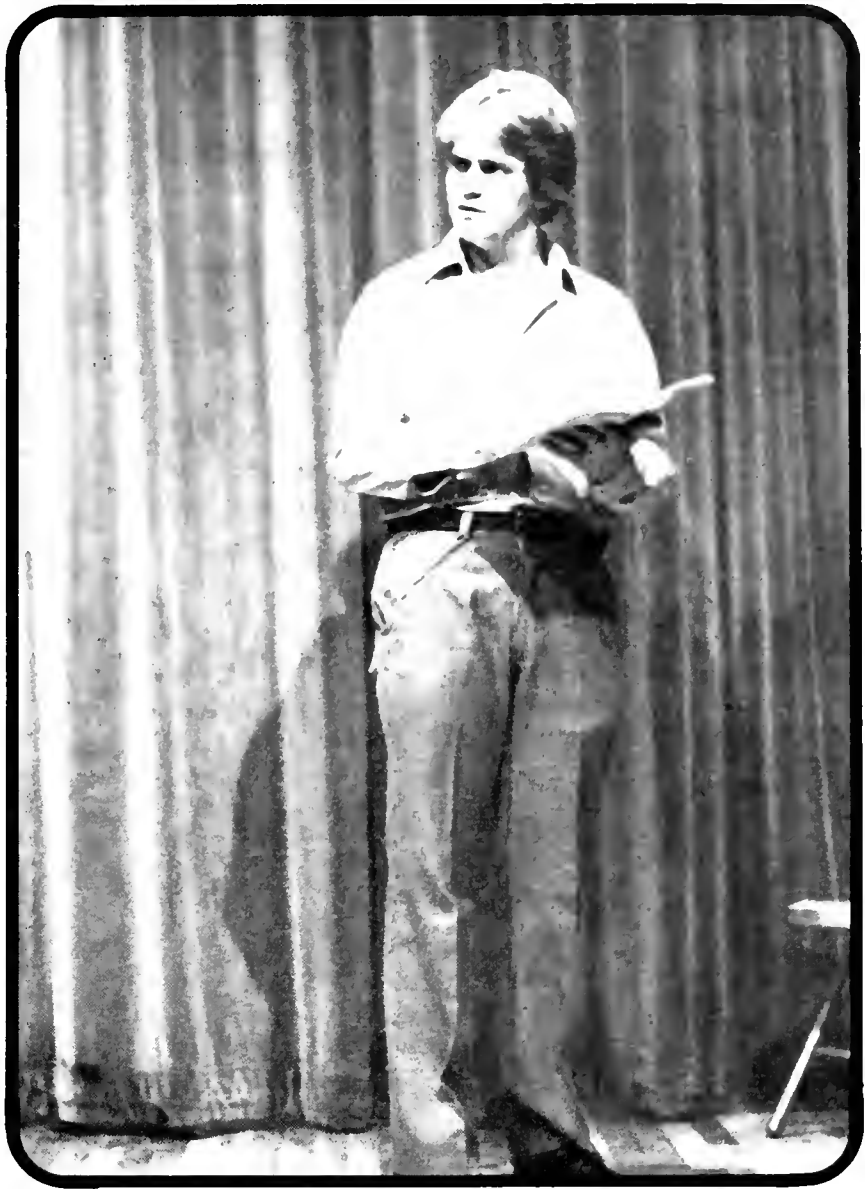

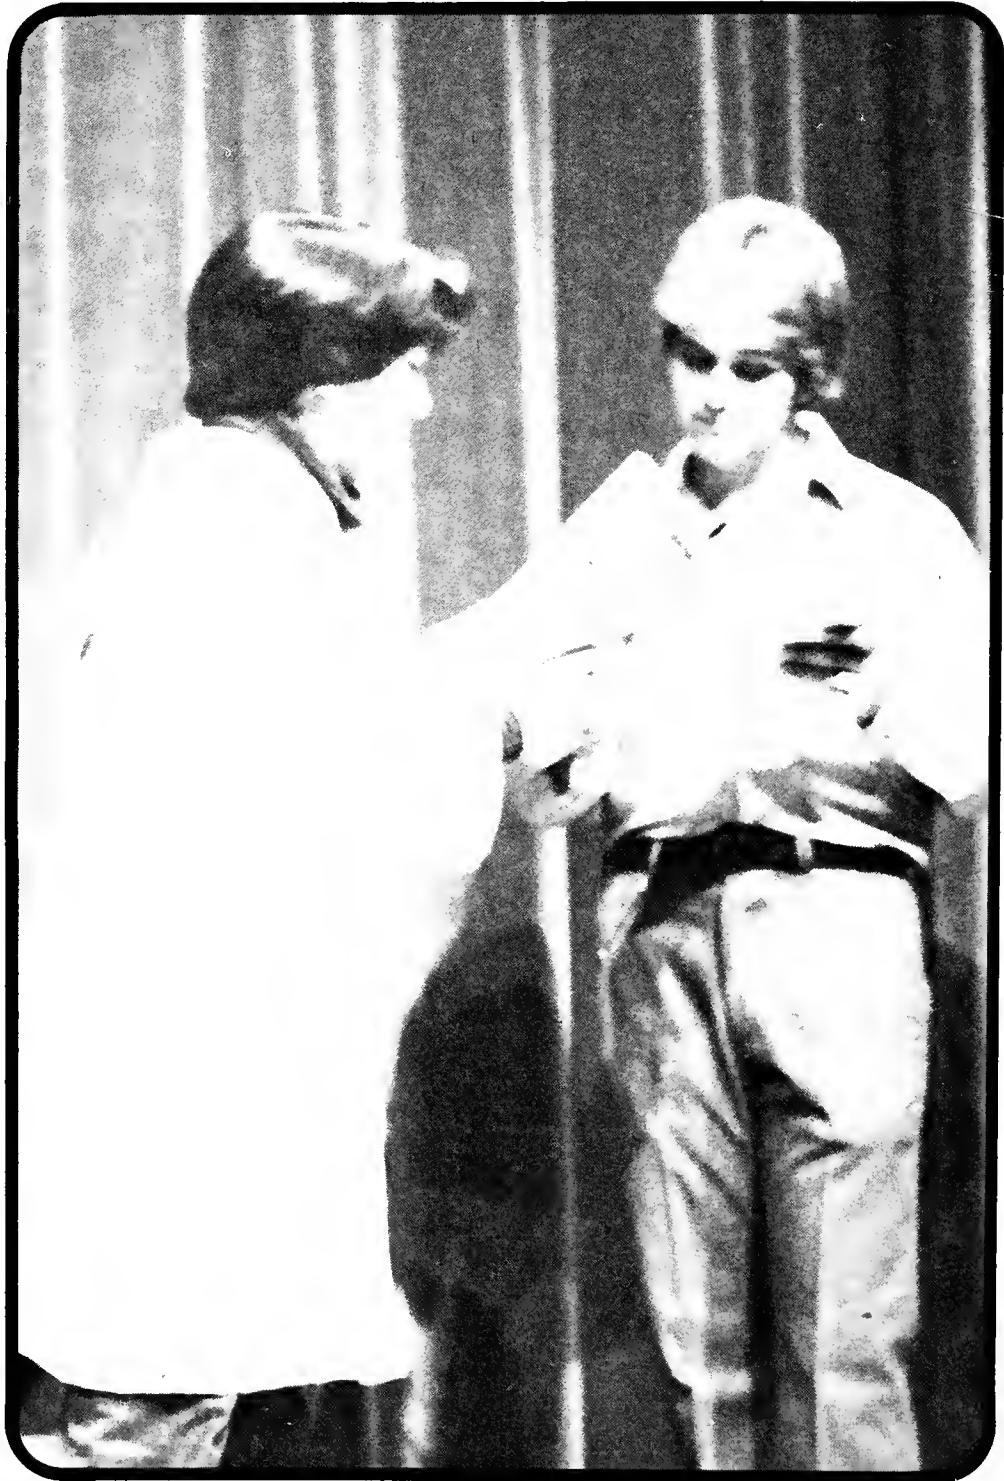

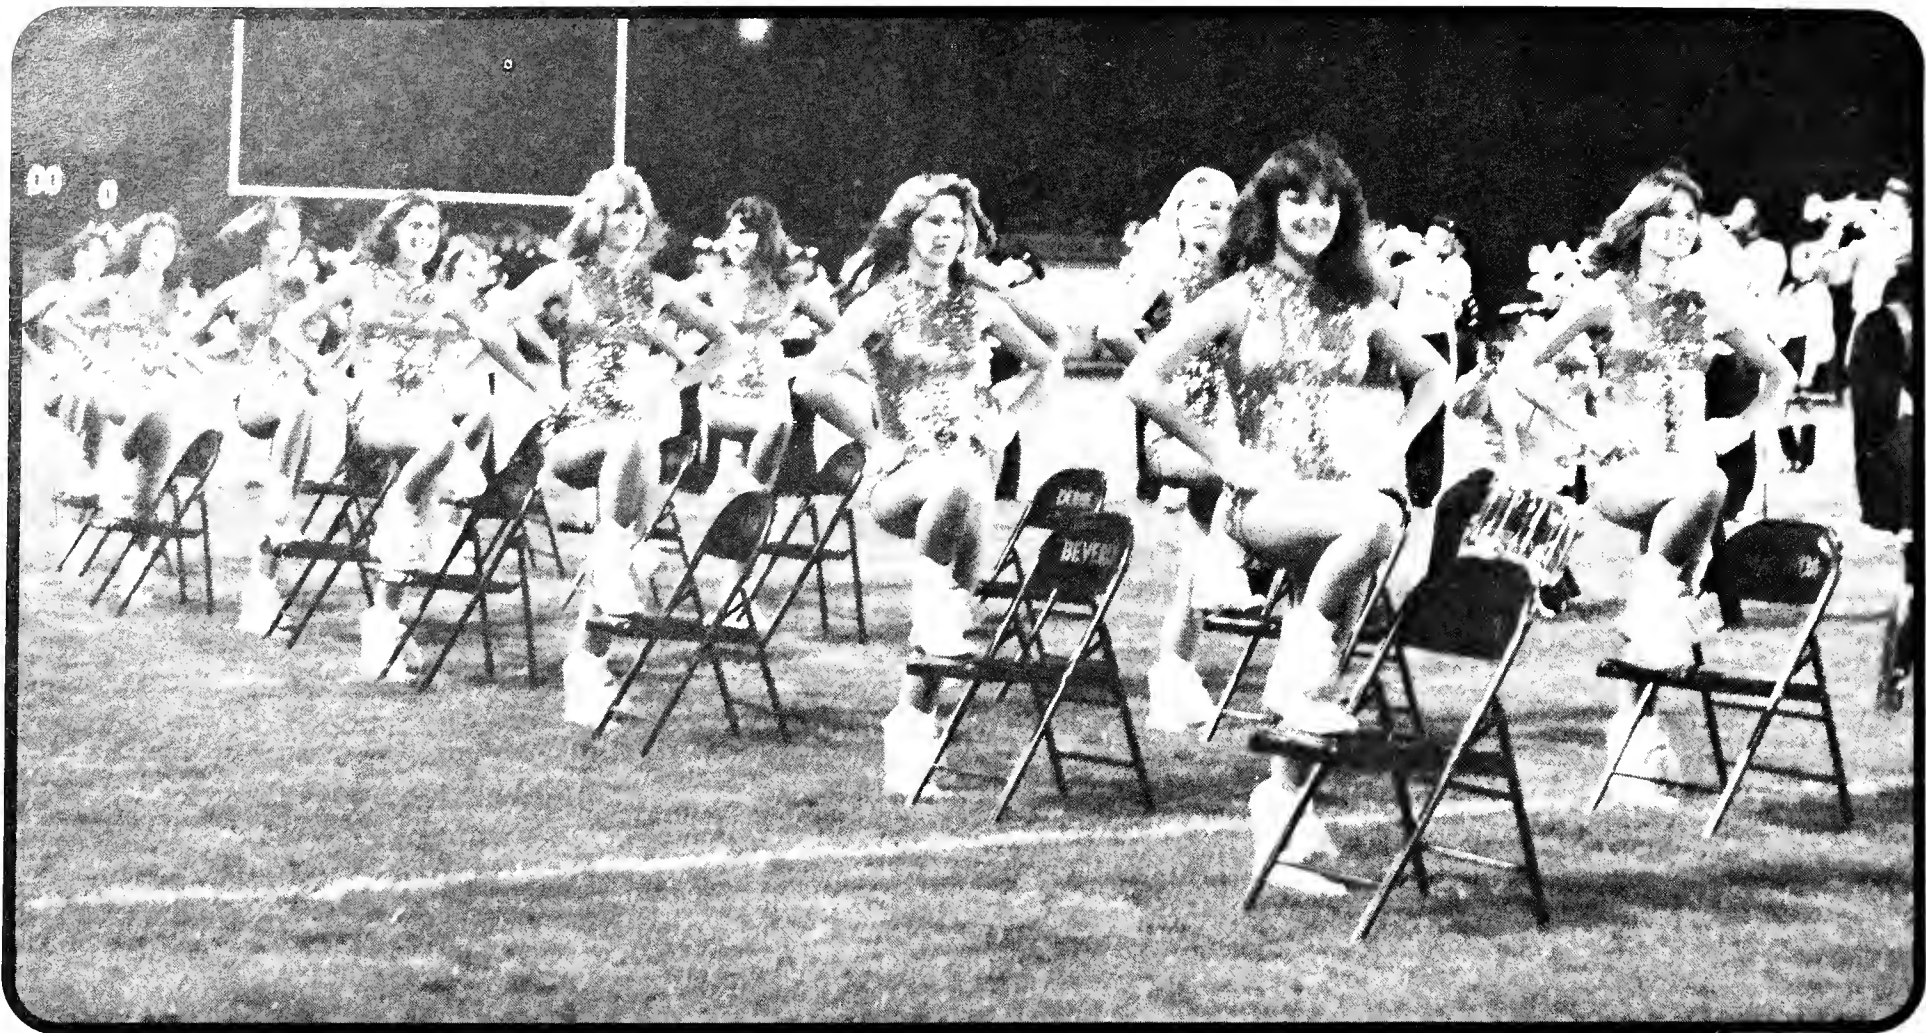

Participating in clubs is a vital part of the HAPPENINGS to many at Northeast. Students attend meetings to plan different activities to help raise money for their particular club. Some of these activities range from selling corsages for the homecoming game, presenting a Gong Show, and setting up different booths during homecoming week. Whatever may be their way of making money, club members have an enjoyable time working as a group and sharing their planned activities with other clubs.

The Speech Department and the Tiger Band are important to the lives of many students on campus. Participation in the dramatic productions attracts many hopeful actors to the stage, and the productions themselves provide entertainment for people at Northeast and in the surrounding community. The Tiger Band is a valuable necessity to Northeast. It cooperates with the cheerleaders and students at pep rallies and performs magnificent half time shows at the football games. We are proud of the endless hours of work that are put into making these functions what they are.

NORTHEAST JUNIOR COLLEGE LITERARY TOUR OF GREAT BRITAIN

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College offered a 28-day foreign travel-study program, a literary tour of England, Scotland, and Wales, from May 10 — June 6, 1977.

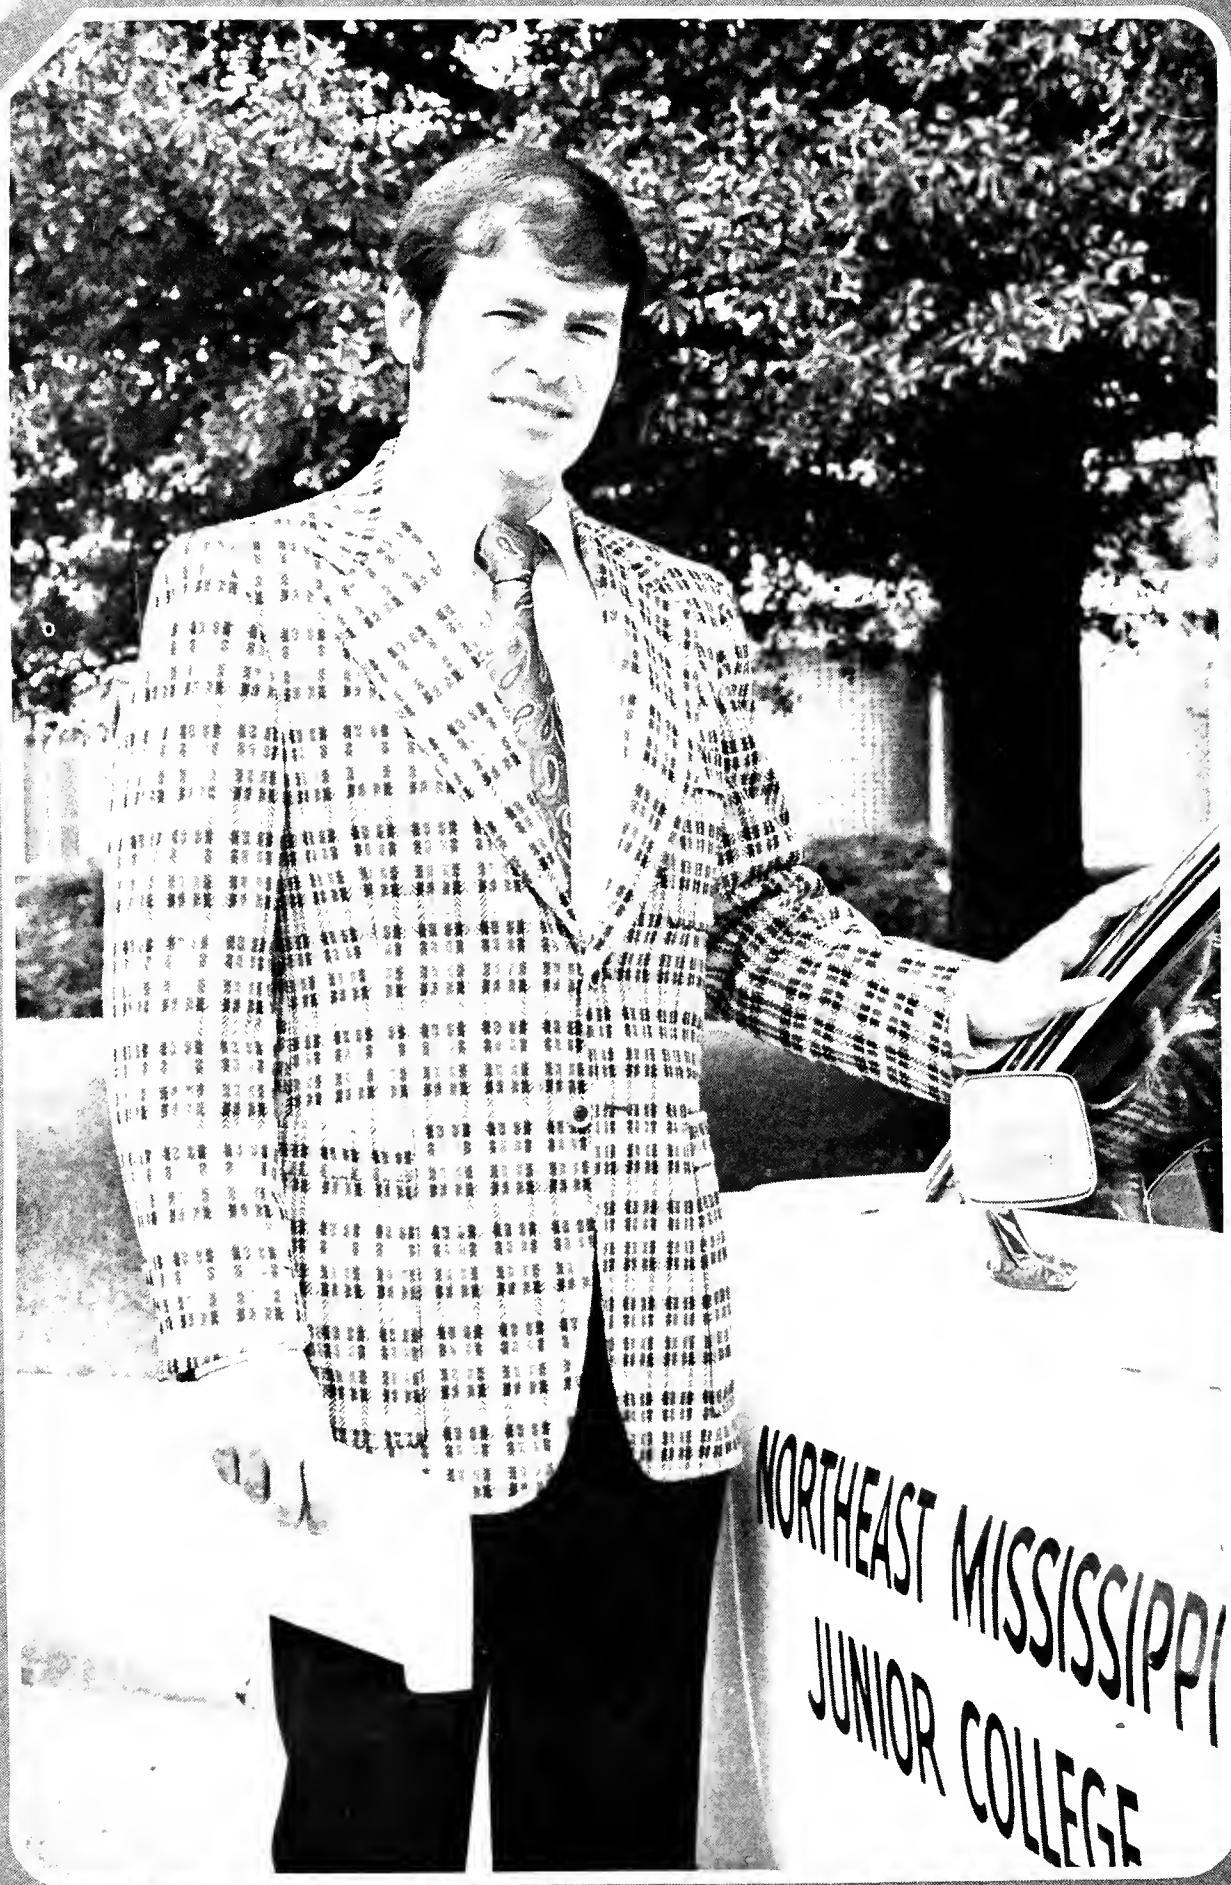

In connection with Educational Projects International, educational travel consultants, twenty-eight (28) Northeast students traveled from Booneville to Memphis and, via New York to London.

After several days in London, the tour left by train and in the succeeding days traveled to Wales and then north to Scotland. Stops were made in such historic cities as Canterbury, Oxford, Salisbury, Stratford-on-Aveon, Edinburgh, and Loch Ness. An added attraction was a trip across the English Channel and a day in the French city of Boulougne.

Northeast awarded three hours of college credit in English literature 2233 or 2243 or three hours were obtained in World literature 2273 or 2283 by those who desired to register for it.

THE PRESIDENT

HAROLD T. WHITE

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College, like many other two-year institutions, is rapidly becoming a true community college serving the broad range of needs of the entire population.

Since its first year of operation in 1948, the mission of Northeast Junior College has been broadened from the narrow scope of providing a baccalaureate program to providing programs which meet the post-secondary needs of the adult population.

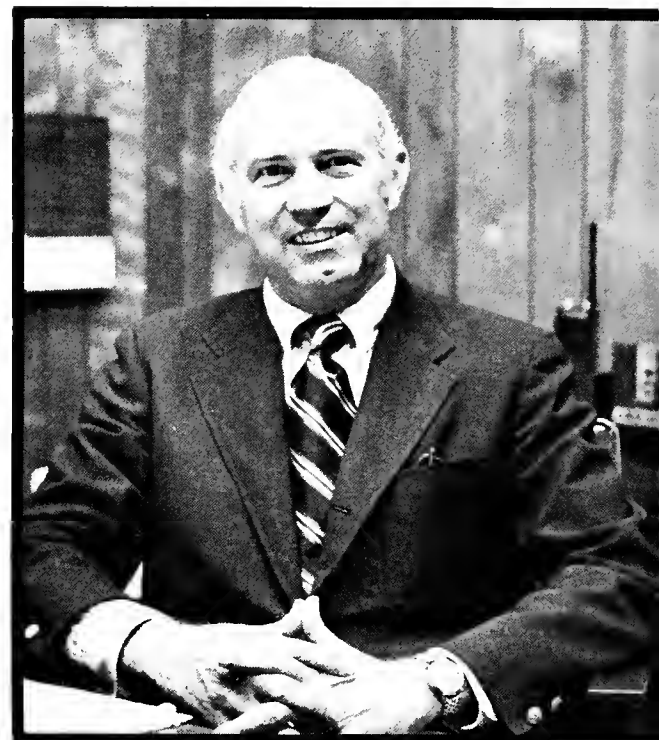

The student's primary purpose at Northeast is to gain an education. The desire for knowledge burns within the learner. It can be sensed in the air, in the scattered conversation on the way to classes, in the busy hum of voices in the Union. It spurs heated discussions over a calculus problem or debate over an English novel. It is present in the noises and odors of lab. The search for knowledge causes the learner to ask questions, to seek out answers and explanations. Northeast exists for the student. The development of the scholar's intellect is Northeast's primary concern. It is here in her library, in her classrooms, in the labs, that the student acquires knowledge and understanding of life.

No component of a college is more important than the faculty. The most gifted student must be challenged and inspired and directed. No faculty member will be able to provide incentive unless the instructor is dedicated to the cause of education, willing to spend the long hours necessary on research, counseling, and keeping abreast of the instructor's field. Northeast has such a faculty.

The Northeast Mississippi Junior College is truly on the move!

FACULTY

AGRICULTURE AND HOME ECONOMICS

W.D. Clifton
Carolyn A. Hopkins

The students of agriculture aren't confined to farming. Students preparing for careers in veterinary medicine, agronomy, and vocational education also take agriculture courses as a basis for further specialized education. Practical experience in household economics is provided in the Home Management House, which serves as a laboratory where the girls work.

BUSINESS

An essential element of the world today is business. Northeast provides the opportunity for students to acquire an understanding of modern business processes and to train for careers in business education, accounting, business administration, secretarial science, and general business.

DENTAL HYGIENE

James S. Long
Carol Lowry

The Dental Hygiene Program is directed toward the provision of experiences to meet specific needs of dental hygienists who seek employment in health care facilities, public health agencies, and educational institutions. Major portions of the program are related to expanded duty functions; the acquisition of competencies required to deliver health care services in the absence of direct supervision; and, teaching and management principles.

FACULTY

EDUCATION AND PSYCHOLOGY

Beneath the exterior of the human being, beneath his intelligence and his conduct, lies a fascinating and relatively unexplored area from which stems the determinants of character. "Know thyself" is built upon the findings of experimental and theoretical psychology.

E.J. Godard
Ruth D. Jackson
Peggy Wroten

FINE ARTS

Within the framework of a liberal arts curriculum, the study of the fine arts serves as an outlet for the talents of especially creative persons, and as a means of awakening the aesthetic sensitivities of all students.

The tools of an industrial arts major are many and varied from the T-square and drawing pencils of a drafting student to the lathes, screwdrivers, and claw hammers of the shop students.

LANGUAGES AND LITERATURE

The transmission of ideas from one person to another is inseparable from the ideas themselves, for without a means of expression the most perceptive observation or most delicate sensation is valueless.

The library houses educational materials which enrich and supplement the curriculum. It also provides a study area for students and faculty members. The collection consists of books, periodicals, units of microtext, microfilm, vertical file material, and the Dial Access Retrieval System which consists of audio and video tapes.

FACULTY

MILITARY SCIENCE

Military Science has the chief objective of producing junior officers who, by their education, training, and leadership qualities, are selected for continued development as officers of the United States Army.

Brian J. Ohlinger

MATHEMATICS AND PRE-ENGINEERING

Mathematics, often called the "queen of sciences", is accepted as essential by Phi Theta Kappa scholarship standards and by all students of other sciences. The orderly realm of numbers is a fascinating one, sure to challenge an alert, inquisitive mind.

Bettie S. Akers
Lunelle Y. Miller
Emma M. Street
Evelyn W. Tigrett

NATURAL SCIENCES

Life and its origins have fascinated mankind through the centuries. The study of lower forms of life and of the human body itself is one whose significance cannot be overlooked in an age of medical scientific inquiry, for such inquiries can often benefit mankind tremendously.

Professional, pleasant, understanding, quiet but efficient, girls, men in white . . . caps tilted dangerously back on their heads . . . calm, considerate, helpful. These are phrases descriptive of nurses who are dedicated specialists, nurses who have behind them years of study and work dispensing medicine, giving baths, smelling ether for the first time, learning to overcome emotions, and learning to work with the patients and skill necessary for the trained nurse. Class work, lab work, and special duty are all in a busy day for the nurse.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

The orientation of the individual to society as a whole and to the other personalities around him is a subject of tremendous concern to modern man. Cognizant of the significance of the application of the scientific method to social problems, modern education pays due respect to the social sciences. And Northeast provides for each student the opportunity to explore the basis of human action and interaction.

FACULTY

TECHNICAL

Changes that are occurring in the world of work today are placing added responsibilities on the educational system of colleges. One of the major responsibilities is to provide an expanded and enriched technical program to keep abreast of the change. Scientific knowledge has increased more in this generation than it has since the beginning of time. It is estimated that the present scientific knowledge will be doubled within the next decade. It is also a fact that a person entering the work force today will change occupations on an average of five times; hence, retraining is necessary for each new job.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

During Homecoming Week students were encouraged to participate in all the activities planned for each day. Monday was jersey day when all students were encouraged to wear a jersey. Tuesday was black and gold day; all students were urged to wear the school colors. Wednesday was 50's day. Everybody was encouraged to wear clothes styled like those of the 1950's.

Thursday was kiddy day and every one was encouraged to dress like little children. Also, clubs set up booths in front of the Union to raise money for their various activities. Friday was tacky day. Tuesday night a 50's disco dance was held and music from that era was played. To "fire up" for the game on Saturday night, the cheerleaders led a pep rally on Thursday night after which a weiner roast and bonfire was held.

BEAUTY REVUE

The annual Northeast Junior College Beauty Pageant was held November 17 in Seth Pounds Auditorium. The student body nominated ninety-three co-eds that participated in a preliminary judging. From these girls, twenty-two were chosen to compete for the title of "Most Beautiful" at Northeast.

The judges for this year's beauty revue were Miss Laura Parish, Mississippi's Miss Hospitality; Miss Claire Ford, Miss Black America; and Mr. Tim McCarver, Professional Baseball Player with the Philadelphia Phillies. The Master of Ceremonies was Olin Morris, TV personality with WREG-TV, Channel 3, Memphis. The organist was Mr. Bryan Essary and entertainment was provided by Miss Lady Anne Stone, Mr. Terry Hurt, and Mr. Bobby Carter, all Northeast students. The Judges and Master of Ceremonies arrived on campus around noon to be introduced to the student body, faculty members, and beauty revue contestants at a reception held in the Black and Gold Lounge of Frank Haney Union.

The beauties were first presented in sportswear. Then they were presented in evening dress competition. After tallying the points, the judges chose ten finalists: Nancy Barron, Tammy Bass, Wanda Bobo, Candy Elam, Jan Grissom, Cindy Gunn, Angela Lawrence, Leeza Mills, Tammy Scott, and Debra Wofford.

Among the beauties themselves, the winner of the sportswear and evening dress apparel was selected. The winner of the two was Miss Nancy Barron. There was a tie for Miss Congeniality shared by Miss Jan Grissom and Miss Beverly Gay.

After one last look at these ten girls before choosing the top five, the points were tallied again. The four semi-finalists were then announced: Tammy Bass, Wanda Bobo, Jan Grissom, and Cindy Gunn. Chosen Most Beautiful for 1977 was Miss Tammy Scott. Tim McCarver crowned the new winner and presented her with flowers.

HALL OF FAME

Three Northeast sophomores who excelled in all phases of campus life have been named to the "Hall of Fame" for 1976-1977. They are Ann Rayburn, Booneville, Melba McCoy, Booneville, and Curt McLemore, Corinth. These outstanding students in their two years at Northeast exemplified leadership, scholarship, ambition, and school spirit. The enthusiasm and dedication of Ann, Melba, and Curt, coupled with a variety of interests and talents made them worthy of Northeast's highest honor — selection to the "Hall of Fame".

FESTIVAL OF ARTS

Festival of Arts Weeks is, as its name implies, a week-long series of activities for both students and faculty to enjoy. The festival featured different cultural arts throughout the week of November 6-11. Numerous activities were planned for the week. A harpsichordist, pianist, jazz group, exhibit of pottery, and weaving demonstration occurred during the week. The Speech Department presented BLITHE SPIRIT during the week. The highlight of the week was a speech by Dr. Margaret Walker Alexander, author of the best seller, JUBILEE. Dr. Alexander is the head of the Black Studies Division of Jackson State University. Her book was used as the background for an opera. The week provided a variety of interesting activities for all students.

BLITHE SPIRIT

BLITHE SPIRIT by Noel Coward was a smash comedy hit of the London and Broadway stages. The ingenious plot tells how novelist Charles Condomine invites into his placid country home an eccentric lady medium in order to learn the language of the occult. Little does Charles or his lovely second wife Ruth, dream that the seance staged by the medium will bring back Charles' first wife, now "passed over" for seven years. How Charles extricates himself from these two women makes a hilarious conclusion to this very unusual farce. The play is hilariously funny, brilliant, clever, and about as cockeyed as a play can be.

"The Sound Of Music"

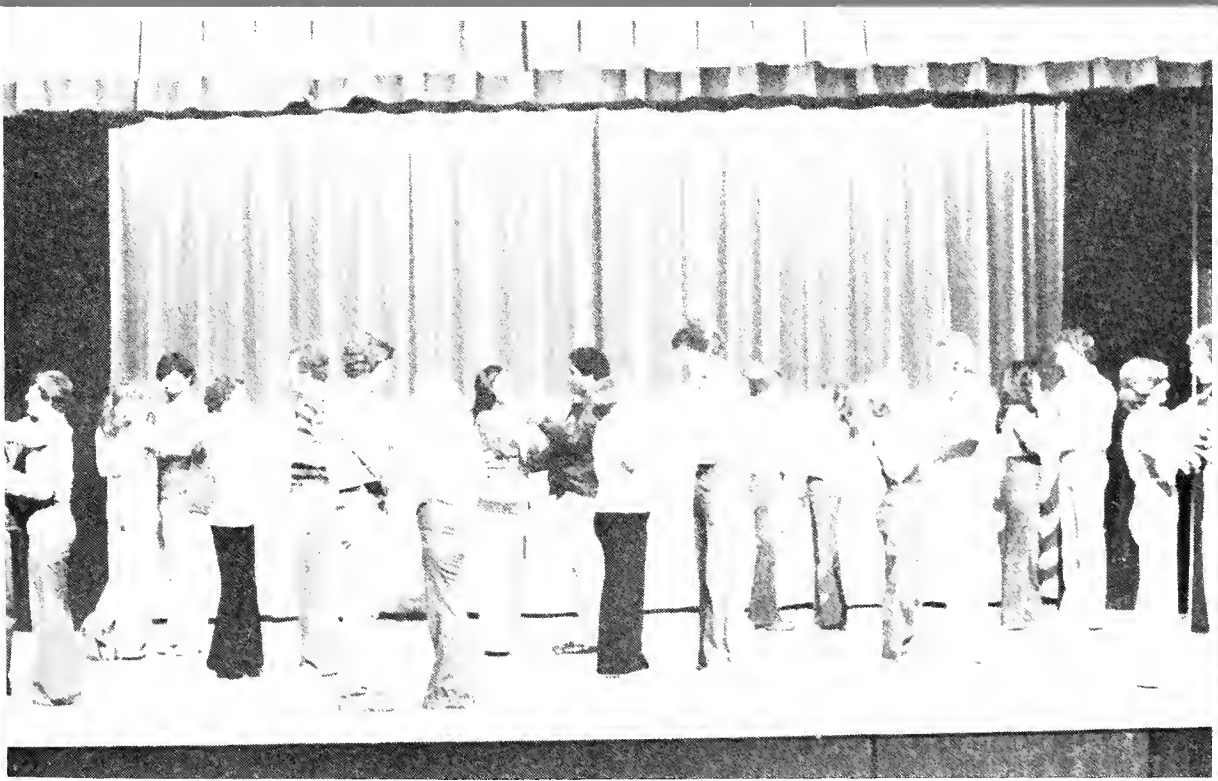

"The Sound of Music" is based on a popular selling book, THE VON TRAPP FAMILY SINGERS, by Maria Augusta Trapp. The action takes place in Austria in 1938, which is prior to the Nazi occupation. The story revolves around a widowed Naval Captain, a postulant (a young girl who wishes to become a nun), and the Captain's seven young children.

The production, under the direction of Mr. William Murphy Jones who was assisted by Dwight Whitt, Becky Budlowe, and Linda Earp, was staged in the Seth Pounds Auditorium on Thursday and Friday, April 21 and 22. The show was vocally directed by Mr. George Martin and the orchestra, comprised of "Tiger" band students under the baton of Mr. James Scott. Serving as rehearsal pianist and show organist was Ms. Ann Rayburn and as rehearsal and show pianist was Mr. Billy Harris, both students. The choreographer was Mrs. Sue Howell.

FORESTRY TECHNOLOGY

The Forestry Technology program is designed to train forest technicians for the field of forestry. Students are required to take eleven forestry courses with emphasis on field application of forestry principles. Basic forestry courses, such as dendrology, forest mensuration, forest protection, silviculture, timber processing, and artificial reforestation are stressed. Students are trained by use of the hand-on method in instruction. All principles covered in class are put to practice during field exercises.

The course curriculum is designed with twenty-six areas of accomplishment, such as timber marking, cruising techniques, writing logging contract, and balancing logging crews.

Upon successful completion of the prescribed curriculum the Associate of Applied Science degree is awarded.

As another year at Northeast draws to a close, the activities and classes that were once a part of our everyday lives are now only memories. Looking back some of these are fond memories while others make us grateful that they are in the past. We have had our ups and downs, but through it all each of us was individually successful as we came one year closer to achieving our personal goals. This was indeed a year of HAPPENINGS at Northeast.

I hope each of you enjoy this annual half as much as I enjoyed putting it together. May you be successful in reaching your goals.
